IN MEMORIAM

JOHN F. KENNEDY

Once before in the history of the United States, a great man gave his life in the service of his country. In tribute, poet Walt Whitman immortalized Abraham Lincoln in the poem, "O Captain, My Captain." To John Fitzgerald Kennedy, another great man, we pay homage by the following rededication.

O Captain! my Captain! our fearful trip is not yet done,
The ship has weathered every rack, but the prize we sought is not yet won,
The port is near, the bells I hear, the people all lamenting,
While follow eyes the steady keel, the vessel grim and daring;
But O heart! heart! heart!

O the bleeding drops of red,
Where on the deck my Captain lies,
Fallen cold and dead.

O Captain! my Captain! rise up and hear the bells;
Rise up — for you the flag is flung — for you the bugle trills,
For you bouquets and ribboned wreaths—for you the shores a-crowding,
For you they call, the swaying mass, their eager faces turning;
Here Captain! dear Captain!

This arm beneath your head!
It is some dream that on the deck,
You've fallen cold and dead.

Superintendent's Message

The name of General Douglas MacArthur has been inscribed on the honor roll of American historical characters. He reverently dedicated his life to duty, honor, and his country. His hopes for posterity were eloquently expressed in his literary masterpiece entitled "A Father's Prayer."

"Build me a son, O Lord, who will be strong enough to know when he is weak, and brave enough to face himself when he is afraid, one who will be proud and unbending in honest defeat but humble and gentle in victory.

Build me a son whose wishbone will not be where his backbone should be, a son who will know Thee—and that to know himself is the foundation stone of knowledge.

Lead him, I pray, not in the path of ease and comfort, but under the stress and spur of difficulties and challenge. Here let him learn to stand up in the storm; here let him learn compassion for those who fail. Build me a son whose heart will be clear, whose goal will be high; a son who will master himself before he seeks to master other men; one who will learn to laugh, yet never forget how to weep; one who will reach into the future, yet never forget the past.

And after all these things are his, add, I pray, enough of a sense of humor, so that he may always be serious, yet never take himself too seriously.

Give him humility, so that he may always remember the simplicity of true greatness, the open mind of true wisdom, the meakness of true strength.

Then I, his father will dare to whisper, 'I have not lived in vain.'

The ideals expressed in his prayer may well serve as a guide to each of you who is to have opportunity to serve in a world that is crying for strong and honorable men.

Foreign Language

The Addition of Conversational French and German II have kept the foreign language department in progress with the needs of the students. French, German and Spanish classes are augmented with a language lab, which greatly aids in pronunciation and comprehension.

Language Arts

Every day, the lives of Vaca High Students are influenced by our language arts department. The curriculum includes English, speech, drama, journalism, remedial reading, and the newest addition, Speed reading, which enables the student to increase his reading rate. The primary purpose for this department is to establish understanding through verbal and written exchange.

Home Economics

The Homemaking Department's main extra-curricular activity, the Future Homemakers, as a gift, recently purchased part of the department's new furniture.

Among the other projects the Homemaking Department put on was the CASSA Luncheon which highlighted the visitation of our campus.

In May the fashion show and tea brought to a close a very busy year for the F.H.A. and Homemaking Department.

Mrs. Morris
Department Head

Business Department

Under the direction of Mrs. Hurlbut, the Business Department offers unlimited class variations, such as the two-year courses in typing, bookkeeping, and shorthand. As no business courses are required, such courses as business law, business math, consumer's education, and general business, are enrolled in by choice for personal achievement. These courses offer students an opportunity to receive practical experience in various vocational fields. The department's future plans include updating the course offerings by considering such future courses as machine shorthand and data processing.

Fall Student Council

The Fall Semester of Student Council, led by President Steve Hagerman, Vice-President Sue Rupp, Secretary Jeanne Caesar, and Treasurer Jeanette Ver Vaecke, began the year by helping with the Freshman Reception. Homecoming, after being rained-out once, was a huge success.

Student Body Cards and picture sales were handled by the Fall Council. Much time and effort was put into both of these functions by members of the councils.

The annual canned food drive was held at Christmas time, and all classes and organizations contributed with great enthusiasm.

The Fall Student Council tried at all times to make decisions that would be beneficial to the students of Vaca High.

Spring Student Council

The Spring Semester of Student Council led by President Jeff Linder, Vice President Nancy Campanale, Secretary Beverly Healer, Treasurer Madeline Huston, began the spring semester with the organizing of the House of Representatives, and Student Court. The purpose of these organizations are to keep students well informed of campus activities and to bring more respect to the campus of Vaca High. Student Council and all other organizations worked together to make the "Spring Fling" the best ever.

Student Council has strived to make Vaca High a better school. It is hoped that in the future close cooperation with all who are involved will bring a more active school spirit in all areas to Vaca High.

Last minute check before the Girls' League Talent Show begins.

Girls' League

The Girls' League of Vacaville Union High School passed its second birthday this year. As a fairly young organization, it is still organizing and growing.

Under first semester president Carole Hawkins, the organization sponsored the annual Back to School Fashion Show of "do's" and "don'ts" in fashion and make-up.

Due to the tragic loss of our nation's President, the Sadie Hawkins day and dance scheduled for November were postponed.

In December, the Girl's League Council sponsored a most profitable cake sale. Our big project for the month was a Christmas visit to a children's ward at Sonoma State Hospital, taking with us, boxes of toys and dozens of cookies for the children there.

A talent show was first on the agenda when the second semester opened. Joan Everly was our newly elected president.

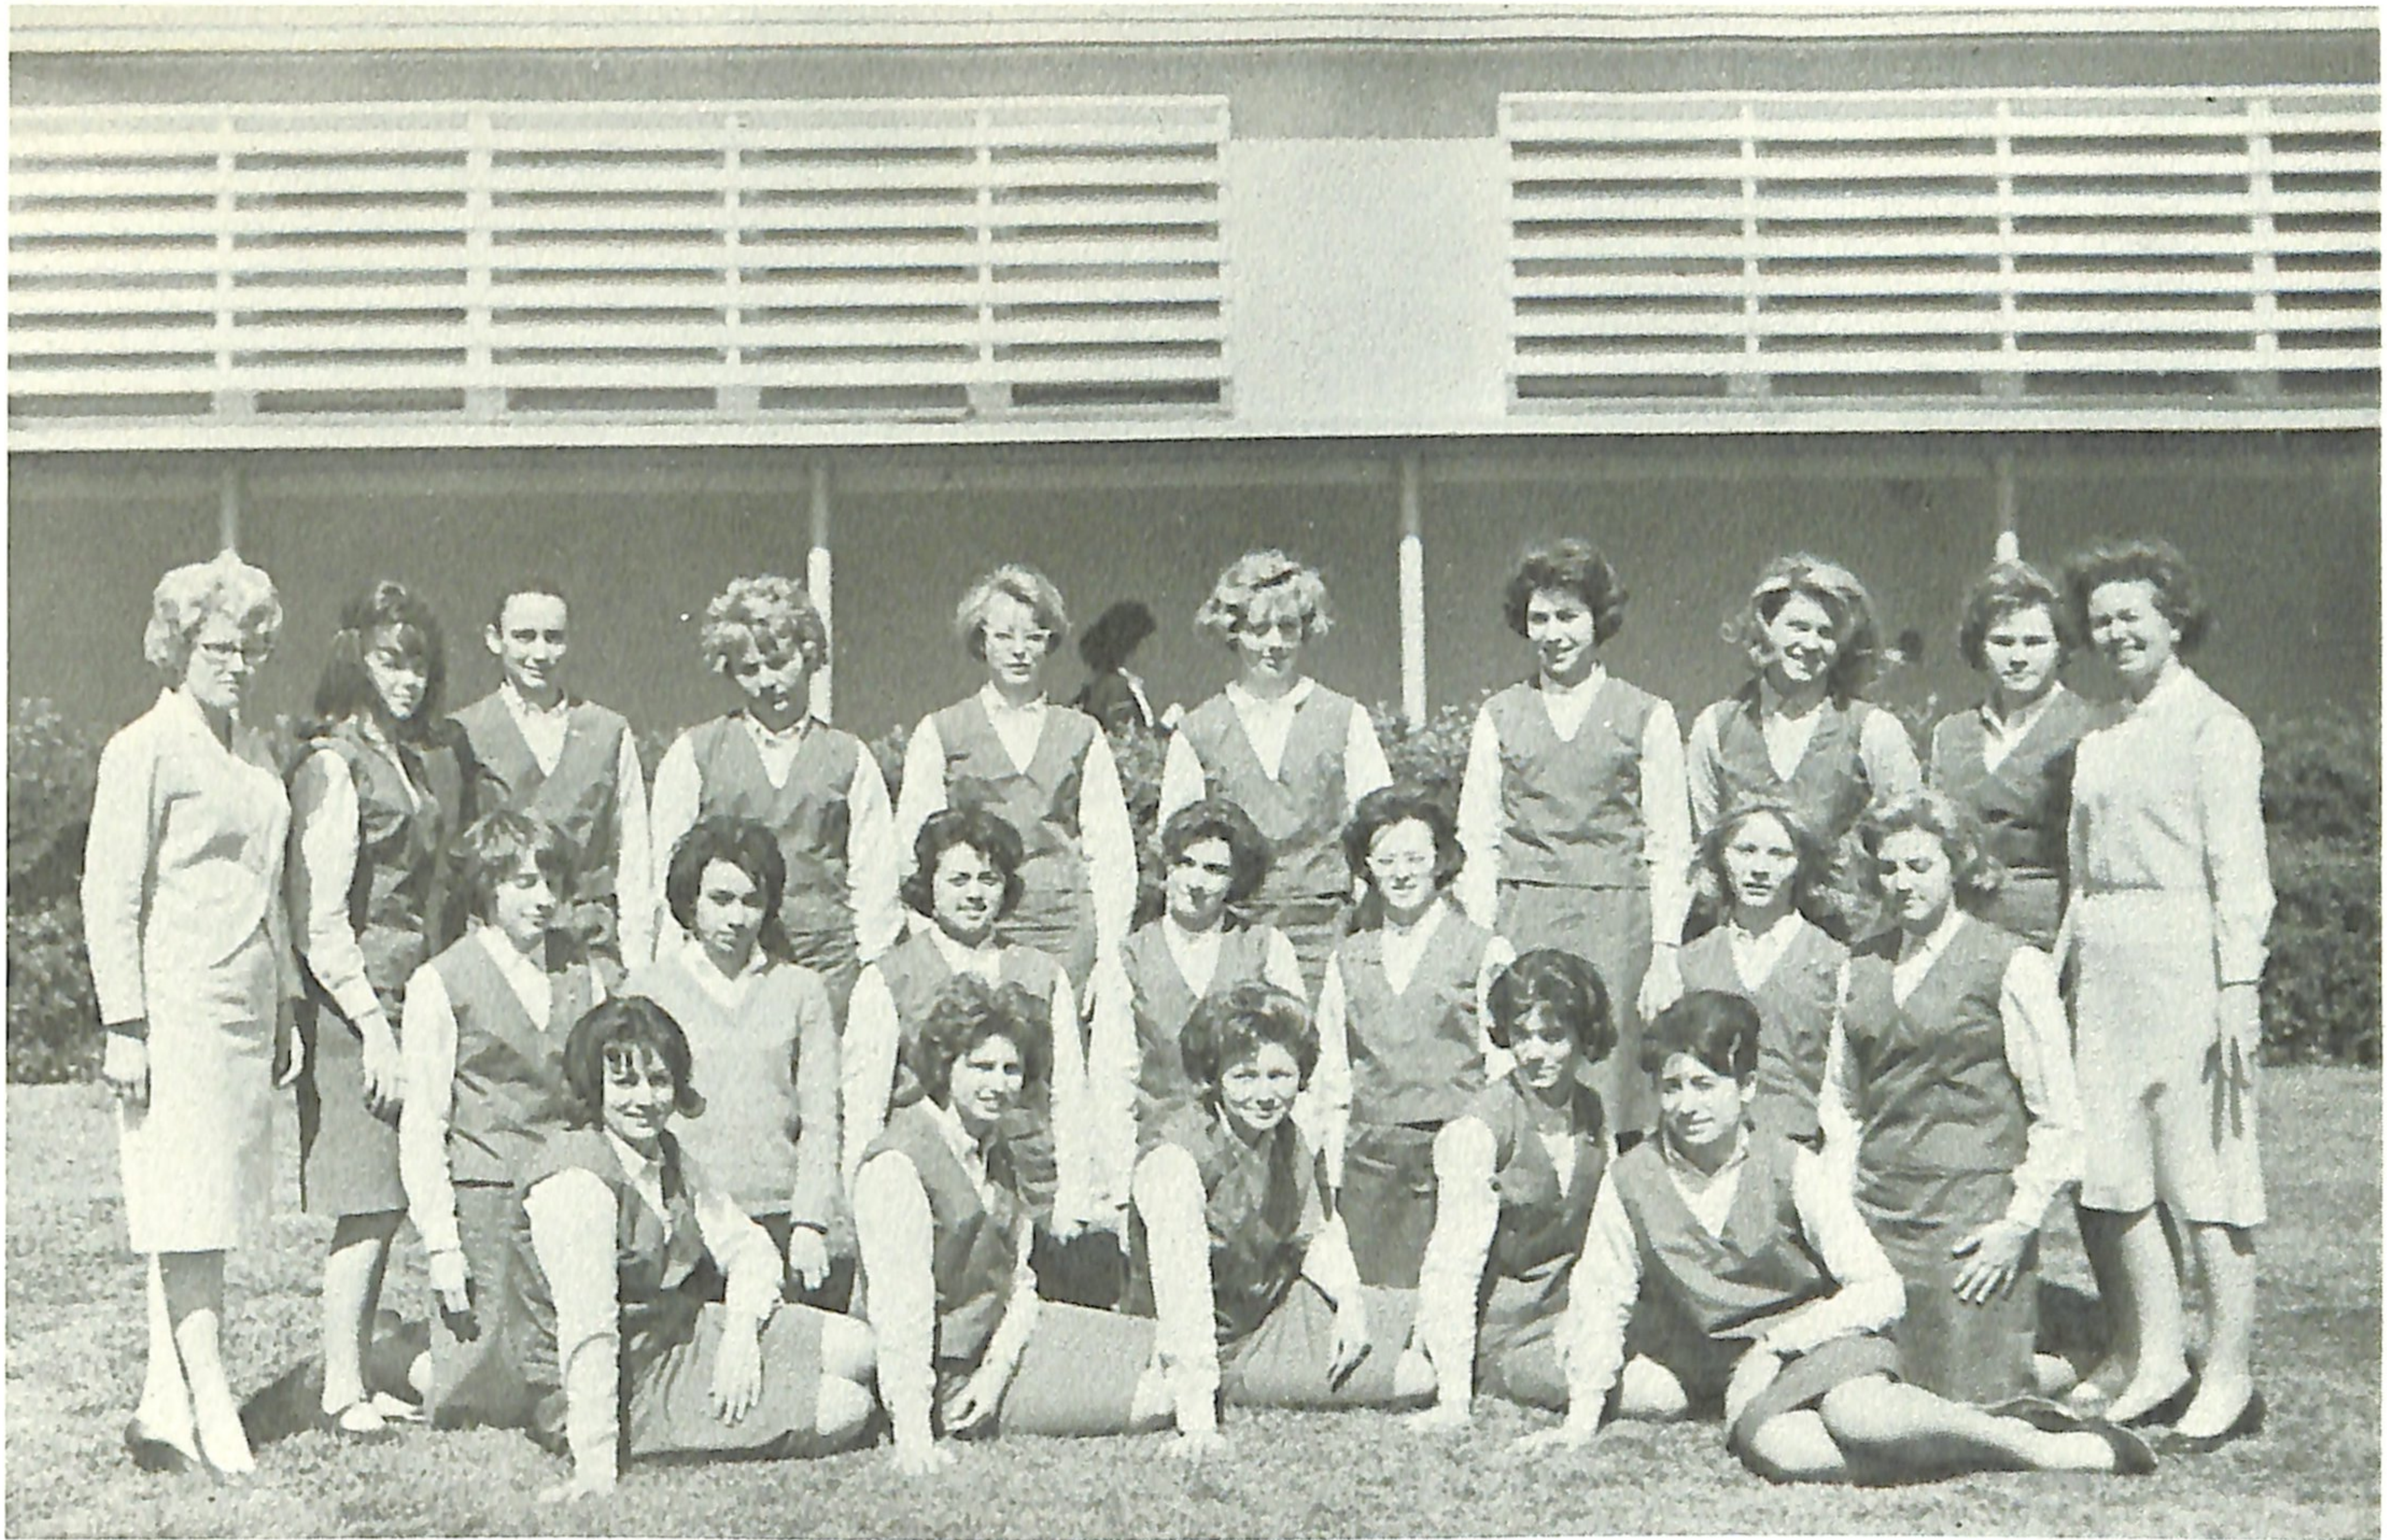

In March, Girls' League co-sponsored "Twirp Day," a substitute for our postponed Sadie Hawkins Day. This gave the girls the responsibility of providing transportation, paying at the dance and proposing at the Marriage Booth.

The annual Mother and Daughter Spring Tea and Fashion Show was held on May 7, and, as always, it was a huge success. Over 50 models aided in making the afternoon a success, and provided a perfect climax to a very prosperous and activity filled year for Girls' League.

California Scholastic Federation

Recognizing the scholastic achievements of our school is C.S.F., sponsored by Mrs. Newchock and Mrs. Clason. Under the direction of Juanita Barham, president, the club has brought a pen machine to Vaca High. Other activities include Student-of-the-Month program, the annual initiation, enrichment programs, tutoring fellow students, field trips and the yearly card party for the C.S.F. scholarship.

Named as life members were Juanita Barham, Nancy Campanale, Beverly Healer, Jo Anne Jansen, Candee Lawson and Doug Swanson.

Mrs. Hazel Nielson and Mrs. Charlotte Waggy, co-sponsors; Ruth Treisman, fall semester president and Kathy Lewis, spring semester president, have been the leaders of the California Education Club activities this year. In the fall of the school year, C.E.C. members served as guides for back-to-school night and served refreshments for a Teacher Articulation meeting. During the spring semester, the club attended the Future Teachers Conference at Chico and San Jose State Colleges, attended plays at the University of California at Davis and served as hostesses while CASSA was here.

California Education Club

Science Club

Members of the Science Club enjoyed a year of learning, exploration, and accomplishments. The officers will remember the times their responsibilities were taxing, and how their advisor, Mrs. Miller offered a logical solution to the dilemma. The Madame Curie Hop, field trips, and book covers were all a part of the Science Club.

THE BULLDOGS' BARK

Bark

Vaca Union High School's student voice is represented by The Vaca Hi Bulldog's Bark. It is the object of this publication to report school news and activities to all students.

Vaca Hi will soon be publishing its own paper on the school off-set printing press. This will not only cut the price of publication, but will make it possible for more editions with more up-to-date news.

The Literary Club enjoyed another successful year led by Miss Bernhardt, the advisor. Officers included Dale Malsberger, president for both semesters; Ron Matthews, vice president for the first semester; Larry Nessly, vice president second semester; and Madeline Houston, secretary first semester; Sue Freeman, secretary, second semester.

Wise and Otherwise, the Literary magazine, was published for the students of Vaca High. It was distributed at the end of the year 1964.

Spanish Club

Spanish Club had a very active year. They enjoyed a potluck dinner at Juanita Barham's where everyone brought some Spanish food. They had an authentic atmosphere with red-checkered tablecloths, candles in waxed wine bottles, and many scenic posters of Spain. Carlos, the exchange student attending Vaca High, attended and talked about the school systems in Spanish-speaking countries.

"El Circulo Espanol" also saw movies in San Francisco and Davis. Members of the club had permanent pins which were purchased every semester.

Future Farmers of America

The Vaca Valley Farmerettes (V.V.F.) is a club newly organized this year for girls interested in the field of Agriculture. Heading the list of accomplishments was the writing of the club constitution under the expert leadership of Mr. Ted B. Gregg, Jr., club advisor.

Early in the fall the club held a barbeque and toured the ranches of several of the members. Other activities included educational field trips to the horse unit at the University of California, Davis, and Steiner's Dairy in Vacaville. The girls also served for the annual F.F.A. Banquet in February. The meetings were highlighted by outstanding guest speakers, and slides. The group also staged its first annual Parent-Daughter Banquet in April.

The Vacaville Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America is composed of girls that are interested in furthering home economics. The organization co-sponsors the FFA-FHA Harvest Dance and the Girls' League-FHA style and tea show.

FHA girls assisted in serving for the luncheon and dinner for the CASSA team.

Sharon Bagley, president of Girls' Athletic Association, considers Vaca High's G.A.A. as one of the most worthwhile organizations for girls on campus. It gives the girls an opportunity to develop physical skills and, yet, have a lot of fun. Playing on a team enables a girl to become adept in sharing victory, accepting defeat, and learning to get along well with others. All of these things contribute to the reason why G.A.A. is certainly a worthwhile organization!

Sharon's fellow officers (Jeanne Nourse, V.P.; Carol Halburg, secretary; Alayne Walden, treasurer; Trudy West, Recorder; and Linda Matthews, Publicity).

With the aid of Mrs. Dolph and Mrs. Hoeft (advisors), they have planned many exciting playdays and other activities this past year.

Jeanette Ver Vaecke, Mrs. Plastino, Kim Francis, Carole Hawkins are caught going over plans for a new routine for the year's many events.

This year's Drill Team, under the leadership of Mrs. Plastino, had a very successful year.

The first big event for them was the East-West game in San Francisco. Next was Chinese New Year, where they placed second in the junior division.

The Drill Team has performed for many events. These include football and basketball games, exchange rally with Armijo, Winters Youth Day, Davis Picnic, Dixon May Fair, and Vacaville Fiesta Days.

At the end of the year a dinner is held and next year's captains are announced.

Rally Committee

School spirit is in the minds of all members of Rally Committee. Their responsibility extends to organizing rallies, putting up posters, and working side by side with Spirit Club.

Spirit Club

Dedicated to the promotion of school spirit, the Spirit Club was open to all students who possessed a valid Student Body Card, were not on academic probation, and had given evidence of good citizenship. This group was responsible for the organization of the official Vaca High rooting section. Under the leadership of Mrs. J. Cook, advisor; Candy Nunn, president; Mary Saltsman, vice president; Cheryl Sutin, secretary; Nancy Molina, treasurer; and Cheryl Coop-rider, historian; this club helped take tickets at games, sold programs and pennants to finance various activities. An awards system was set up and trophies were awarded to members, not officers of the club. The rooting section introduced new yells and used card stunts as major attractions.

These two pages were included to pay tribute not to just a select few but to each and every athlete to compete in the Orange and Black in the past year. The boys pictured on these pages represent the pride, tradition and guts of the Vaca High Bulldogs. They represent the spirit of Vaca High not only on the field but on the sidelines as well.

Sports

After an opening season setback by Weed High, Northern California's small-school champions, the Bulldogs then broke a nine-game losing streak with a convincing victory over Pacifica in the only two non-league contests.

In the first GEL encounter Vacaville blasted the El Dorado Cougars as Jim Thomas pulled in three touchdown passes from quarterback Junior Lopez. Coach Tom Zunino's gridders couldn't cope with Elk Grove's superior offense the following week as the Herd dealt the Bulldogs their first conference defeat.

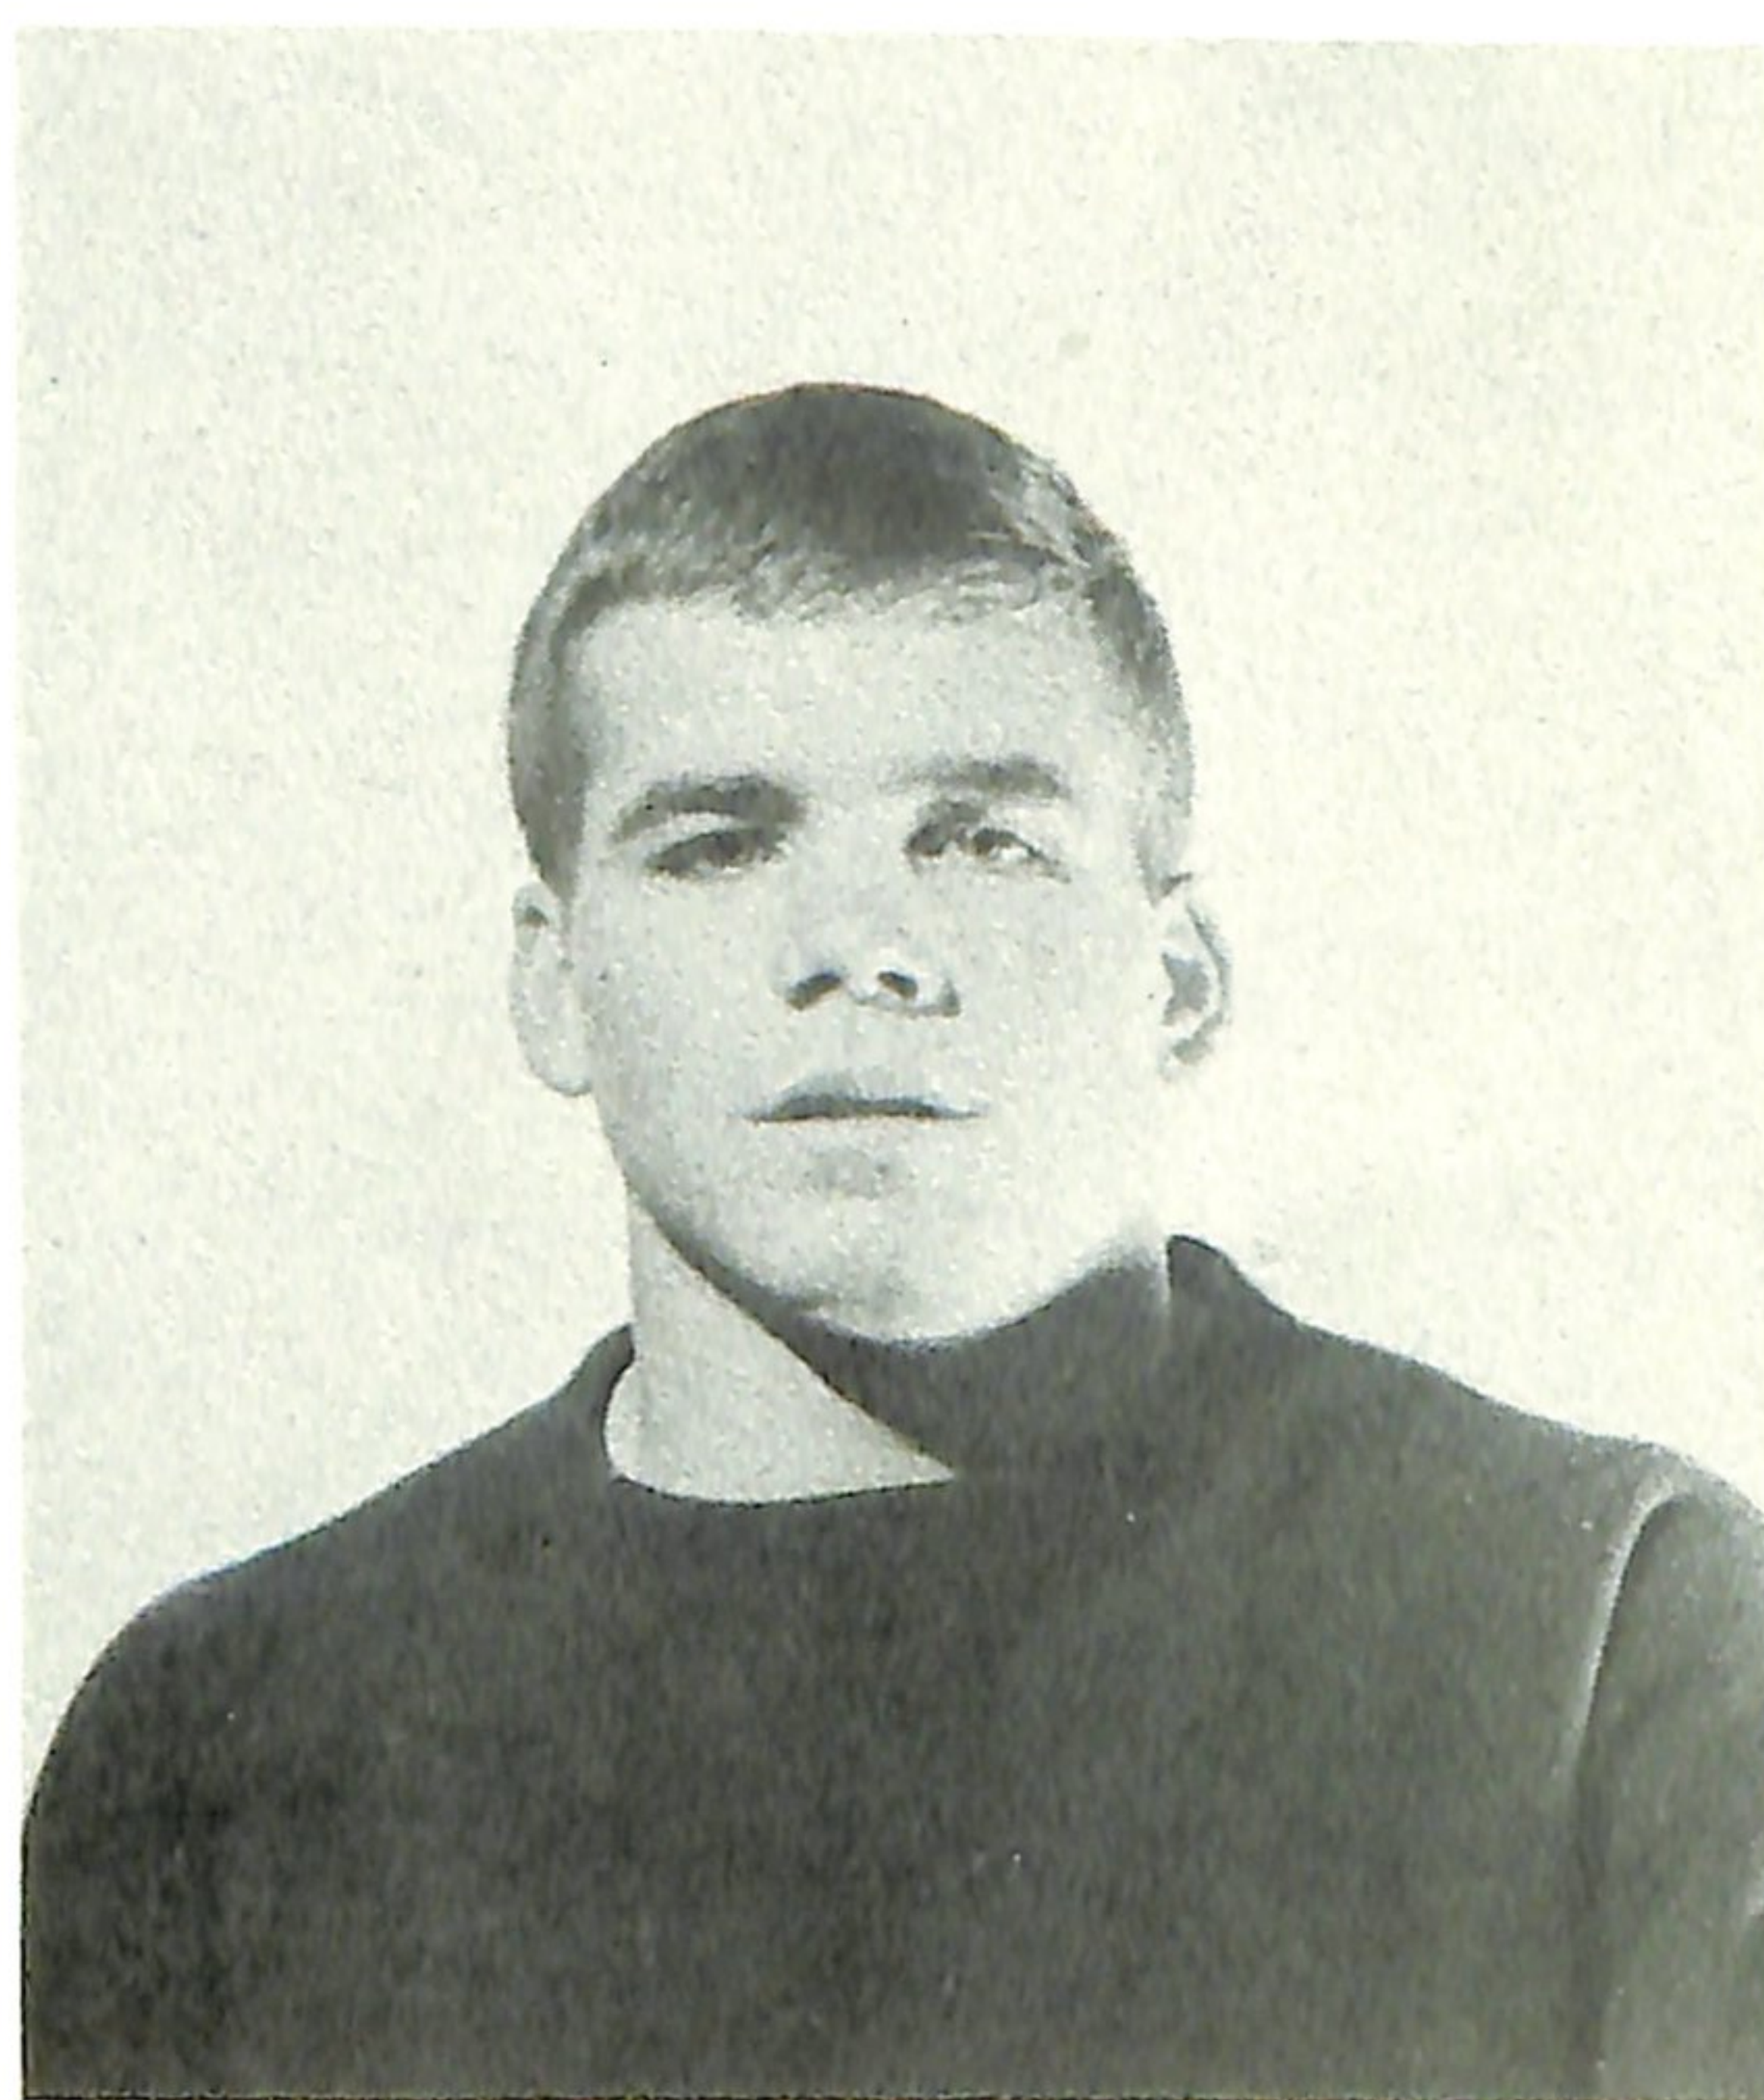

Vacaville then dug in on their home field, winning two decisive victories over Rancho Cordova and James Marshall, the latter being the major upset of the season. The Davis game proved disastrous as the Bulldog's title hopes were ruined. Vaca High then finished the season with easy wins over Armijo and Folsom.

The Bulldogs compiled a 6-3 won-lost record, placing second in league competition with James Marshall squeezing by, by half a game.

Junior Varsity Football

Coach Reece Dick, head Junior Varsity Football mentor, will have a host of returning lettermen for next season's battles.

The J.V. footballers piled up enough wins this past season to put them comfortably in the third place spot in league standings. Jim Gilley sparked the Bullpups to a victory in the league season opener with El Dorado as they placed two touchdowns between themselves and the Kittens. After a severe bruising by Elk Grove, Vacaville came back with a homecoming win over Cordova and from then on were stopped only once, by Armijo in the crucial league champion showdown. Vacaville compiled a 6-3 won-lost record and won five of seven Golden Empire League matches.

Assistant coach Keith West, has taken over the line-coaching chores. Next year's Varsity team will be lacking in linemen. The Junior Varsity line, under the tutorship of Coach West, will easily replace the graduating Bulldogs.

Finding the weather quite warm, Mr. Gene Williams dresses accordingly.

In his first year as Freshman Football coach, Gene Williams had troubles. Although the squad was not able to salvage a win out of the dismal season, they did prepare themselves for next year's Junior Varsity team.

After three losses to Davis, Dixon and Woodland by large margin scores, the Freshmen took on arch-rival Armijo and dropped both contests with them, losing the second game by only one point.

The Bulldog cross-country team looked good this year, winning all four of their dual meets. In multi-school meets they did not fare as well because they lacked a super-star to carry the team in the last stretch.

Outstanding for the varsity thinclads was Stan Nielsen, who in the sub-sectionals, covered the two mile course in 8 minutes, 52 seconds.

Varsity Basketball-1964

Coach Tom Brian, varsity mentor, had a real chore in store for him when he began rebuilding his Bulldogs this year. He had to worry about shortness and experience and the cards were obviously stacked against him. He came up with what can easily be termed a successful season as the Bulldogs placed a close second to Armijo in the G.E.L. and compiled a 9-3 league record, while winning 12 and dropping 8 for the complete season. An all-around scoring attack was one of Vacaville's main advantages, with Tom Newsom, Jarry Reece, Stu Wagner, Bob Heise and Junior Lopez taking turns for high point honors. Although the Vaca High hoopsters were lacking in height compared to most of their opponents, they frequently out-rebounded them.

Augie Moreno, the only returning starter from the '63 squad, sparked the team with numerous double figure scoring.

Stu Wagner, at 5' 11", a reserve guard and frequent starter, averaged 8 points per game during league play and could be counted on for a fine defensive game.

Jumping Jack Dave Sells, only 5' 8", grabbed many rebounds from much taller opponents and was seen often in the scoring column.

Junior Varsity Basketball

As usual the Vacaville junior varsity cagers made the best of their weaknesses and went on to place second in the Golden Empire Conference with a 10-2 won-loss record.

Lacking in experience, the Bullpups dropped the majority of their pre-season encounters, but by the first conference contest, Coach Gene Williams' troops had turned into a well functioning group who ran up a string of eight straight victories without a loss. The mid-season loss of ball-handling Bill Browning hurt the squad immensely. The Bullpups dropped two contests in the final two weeks of the season to Davis and Armijo. Vacaville's earlier win over arch-rival Armijo was the only defeat dealt to the little Indians during the season.

The 1964 Vaca High varsity baseball team is laden with Juniors. To some this may seem a drawback but these Juniors all happen to be baseball lettermen.

With some outstanding new pitchers and increased hitting power this year's team seems certainly headed for a top spot in the Golden Empire League.

Mr. Reese Dick named the following boys in the starting lineup: Tom Newsome, catcher; Dave Sells, pitcher; Jim Thomas, first base; Bob Heise, second base; Champ Boykin, third base; Lonnie Standfill, shortstop; and Ron Riehl, Junior Lopez, and Tom McConnell in the outfield.

Junior Varsity Mentor Mr. Norman Lee

This year's Junior Varsity is much like the Varsity. It has many returning lettermen and is expected to do well in league play. In their first game the Junior Varsity hardballers romped past Hogan High of Vallejo 5-0.

Among the many returning lettermen Coach Lee expects to do well are pitchers Steve Boling and Corkey Plitt, third baseman Steve Brown, and catcher Russ Pryboloski.

In dreams and in love there are no impossibilities.

MIKE KUHLMAN

One part of knowledge consists in being ignorant of such things as are not worthy to be known.

LINDA LAFFERTY

Friendship is the highest degree of perfection in society.

ROBERT LA FLAIR

Individuality is the salt of common life.

TAYLOR KYLE

"I can resist everything but temptation."

DAVID LA BOUNTY

It is not necessarily the well-adjusted man who makes the world a better place.

ANDREA LAMBERT

Success is always possible through a willing heart.

WALTER LAMBERT

Many receive advice; few profit by it.

CARL LANHAM

Cheerfulness will help you over many hard places.

CAROL LANKFORD

And out of mind as soon as out of sight.

BRIAN LAW

A little nonsense, now and then, is relished by the wisest men.

CANDEE LAWSON

"I never could explain why I love anybody or anything."

TOM LEHFELDT

Pleasure that comes unlooked for is thrice welcome.

KATHY LEWIS

Thought alone is eternal.

JOHN LEYBA

No man can lose what he never had.

JEFF LINDER

I recommend you to take care of the minutes, for the hours will take care of themselves.

NANCY LODDE

Woman: part truth, part fiction, some thought, much whim and all a contradiction.

FRANK LOPEZ

A little of the "devil," but a lot of heart.

SAMMY LOPEZ

A man must be tough, rugged, strong, and at the same time, kind and sincere.

KATHY LYNCH

Today is worth two tomorrows.

STANLEY MACKEY

Patience, the blending of moral courage with physical timidity, is a wondrous thing to possess.

RICHARD MacLACHLAN

Silence does not necessarily mean shyness.

DANNY MALONE

What would life be without a practical joke?

CHRISTINE MARFIL

Whoever blushes is already guilty; true innocence is ashamed of nothing.

BILL MARIN

The empty vessel makes the greatest sound.

PETE MARINO

Wit and humor are a good trait in any man.

DENNIS MARTIN
The world is a comedy.

TONY McANALLY
Everything is sweetened by risk.

KATHY McCONNELL
My care is for the future.

DENNIS McCORD
Bears and geniuses are also quiet.

GARTH McDANIEL
Largeness does not necessarily mean greatness, nor weakness.

LINDA MELLO
What she ardently wishes she believes.

JACK MERRICK

A guilty conscience needs no accuser.

BEVERLY MILLER

Impossible is a word only to be found in the dictionary.

PATSY MOFFIT

Knowledge comes but wisdom lingers.

NANCY MOLINA

One is never so happy or so unhappy as one imagines.

GEORGE MONROE

A mind is not completely well organized that is deficient in a sense of humor.

CHANTAL MOORE

Never leave that till tomorrow which you can do today.

CREED MOORE

"Facts are stubborn things!"

MIKE MOORE

Man should always be seeking to better himself.

AUGIE MORENO

His conscience reigns but does not govern.

VERENA MUGGLI

Peace is the evening star of the soul, as virtue is its sun; and the two are never far apart.

ALVIN MULLER

Moderation is the noblest gift of nature.

ANNA MULLER

To be little known is at times better than to be known too well.

BEATRICE MULLER

Hope—the nurse of young desire.

ERYL MULLINS

An appearance of delicacy is essential to beauty.

TONI MURDACA

Everyone hears only what they understand.

THERESA MURILLO

Virtue: the only nobility.

BARBARA NEVEU

Nothing is more simple than greatness; indeed, to be simple is to be great.

STAN NIELSEN

When you have got an elephant by the hind legs and he is trying to run away, it's best to let him run.

PAT NOONAN

Out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaketh.

LARRY NORMAN

Early to rise and early to bed makes a man healthy and wealthy and dead.

CANDY NUNN

A busy girl maintaining the spirit of Vaca High.

LARRY OGILVIE

I can answer in one word . . .
impossible.

PHYLLIS OGREN

They are never alone that are accompanied by noble thoughts.

EARLENE OLIVERA

The truth is the one thing that nobody will believe.

KATHY O'NIELL
One of the gems of heaven.

AL ORTIZ
Do not put off till tomorrow what can be enjoyed today.

MIKE PALMER
A well-tied tie is the first serious step in life.

THERESA PANEPINTO
All things will come to those who will but wait.

EVON PAPIN
High schools are full of knowledge; the freshmen bring a little in and the seniors take none away, and knowledge accumulates.

KARL PARRISH
Whoever thinks of going to bed before twelve o'clock is a scoundrel.

JIM PASTA

Laugh, if you are wise.

PAT PASWATER

"Only great men make great mistakes."

RALPH PEIFER

He who disputes is in the wrong.

DAN PERKINS

The beaten path is a safe path.

PATRICIA POLAND

Out of moderation a pure happiness springs.

BOB POPE

Language most shows a man; speak, that I may see you.

MARK POREP

"... but I didn't see the rug, Dad!"

MARTHA PORTER

The fountain of beauty is the heart.

LYNETTE POULOS

Love and a red nose can't be hid.

THOMAS POWLES

The greatest fault is to be conscious of none.

CONNIE PRESCOTT

They who love dancing too much seem to have more brains in their feet than in their head.

BOB PRICKETT

Let it be as it is or not at all.

TIM PROBASCO

Genius is the gold in the mine;
talent is the miner who works and brings it out.

TRUDY PROCTOR

To say well is good, but to do well is better.

NICOL PYLE

They who forgive most shall be most forgiven.

MARILYN RANDOLPH

By the same methods we do not always attain the same ends.

CANDY RANKIN

Every sweet hath its sour; every evil its good.

GLORIA REED

Good humor is goodness and wisdom combined.

JADE REMILLARD

To err is human.

RICHARD RETZLOFF

What can we reason but from what we know.

MARILYN RIBA

Pride ruined the angels.

BARBARA RICE

Never unprepared—always ready.

DIRK RICHARDSON

The man that blushes is not quite a brute.

RON RIEHL

We have all, at sometime, been mad.

DIANE RITTER

Flirtation: attention without intention.

MIKE RIVETT

In what he leaves unsaid there is a master of style.

MARIAELENA RIZO

The best part of beauty is that which no picture can express.

RICHARD ROACHE

"But me no buts!"

BILLIE JEAN ROACHER

A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance.

JANE ROMERO

In all things it is better to hope than to despair.

PAGE 137

EUSEBIA ROSALES

Life is short, but there is always time for courtesy.

PEGGY RUIZ

Trust begets truth.

SUE RUPP

Sunshine . . . her smile.

JOANNE SADLER

A soul occupied with great ideas best performs small duties.

MARY SALTSMAN

The desire of knowledge, like the thirst of riches, increases ever with the acquisition of it.

SUZIE SAMOLIS

Beauty is not caused, it is.

GARY SAMOWSKI

The artist is a dreamer consenting to dream of the actual world.

VIRGINIA SAMPLEY

The most completely lost of all days is that on which one has not laughed.

FRANK SASSER

"Where's my slide-rule!"

MARINA SAVIDES

Perserverence is failing nineteen times, and succeeding the twentieth.

TOM SAXON

The gift of gaiety may itself be the greatest good fortune.

TERRY SCHNEIDER

To succeed in this world, one must have the appearance of a fool and be wise.

NOREEN SEGURA

Woman and laughter go together nicely.

YVONNE SELLS

The smile that won't come off.

DAVID SELLS

It is a great plague to be too handsome a man.

BRYAN SHOLES

Man was not made to question.

GAIL SHORT

Not by years but by disposition is wisdom acquired.

SANDY SIPRELLE

Love conquers all.

JOHN SISK

A man isn't poor if he can still laugh.

GERRY SKINNER

Likeable, loveable, laughable — Ger!

RICHARD SLAGHT

There are few wild beasts more to be dreaded than a talking man having nothing to say.

STEVE SMENTEK

It is quality rather than quantity that matters.

MILDRED SMITH

Life will give you what you ask of her if only you ask long enough and plainly enough.

RON SMITH

Character and personal force are the only investments that are worth anything.

JUDY SPINAR

It is better to be silent than to say things at the wrong time.

DARRELL STAUB

What a man does tells what he is.

DIANE SORENSON

Paradise is open to all kind hearts.

BETTY SPAUGY

A little thought and a little kindness are often worth more than a great deal of money.

MIKE STEPHENSON

Think all you speak, but speak not all you think.

MARTY STEWART

No one knows like a woman how to say things which are at once gentle and deep.

BENNY DAVIS

All other knowledge is harmful to him who has not honesty and good nature.

DOUG SWANSON

Little minds are tamed and subdued by little things, but great minds rise above them.

LILLIAN TAYLOR

Moderation is the silken string running through the pearl chain of all virtues.

EDIE THOMPSON

Her only regret is that she has but one life to live.

CAROL THORNBRUGH

Zeal without knowledge is the sister of folly.

LARRY TORRES

Fools admire but men of sense approve.

RUTH TREISMAN

Too low they build who build beneath the stars.

HAROLD TUBBS

An idea of an agreeable person is one who does not question.

GEROLD TUCKER

He who knows and knows not that he knows is asleep, waken him.

BILL TURGEON

Carefree and gay, that's his way.

HELEN TUTT

Faith is a higher faculty than reasoning.

JOHN TWOMEY

A man lives by believing.

BETSY ULLMAN

Good, the more communicated, the more abundant grows.

DIANE USSERY

Learn, but learn from the learned.

RAYMOND VALLERO

To act is easy; to think is hard.

BERT VAN VORIS

Wise men say nothing in anger.

CARMELA VASQUEZ

Joy is not in things, it is in us.

MARY ELLEN VASQUEZ

Good words cost nothing but are worth much.

STEVE VASQUEZ
Honor lies in honest toil.

TEDDY VASQUEZ
Every man is a volume, if you know how to read him.

JEANETTE VER VACKE
Idealists are the world's masters.

STUART WAGNER
Man is the merriest specie of the creation; all above or below him are serious.

WAYNE WAGNER
Women—an eternal problem.

STEVE WALKER
It is not enough to have great qualities, we must also have the management of them.

ROBERT WEINER

To be suspicious is to invite treachery.

BILL WELBORN

"My memory is the thing I forget with."

CHUCK WENTWORTH

Originality is simply a pair of fresh eyes.

KATHY WILSON

If there's anything to know, she's bound to know it.

BONNIE WOLF

Men have sight, women insight.

MARDELL WOOD

First deserve and then desire.

PAT WOOD

Nothing endures but personal qualities.

SHERRY WOOD

Wish not so much to live long as to live slowly.

LINDA WYLIE

To live long, it is necessary to live well.

BARBARA WYRENS

Great talents are above the generality of the world.

DOUG YOUNG

Man is an animal that cooks his own food.

KITTY ZELLNER

The last thing to move in a man is his heart; a woman her tongue.

KIM ZIMMERMAN

A great, good, handsome man is the first of created things.

JIM ZUPO

There are many troubles in life,
but the worst of them never come.

TERRY ZWEIFEL

A laugh is worth one hundred groans in any market.

Seen here are Pat Noonan and Cheryl Coopridner in the successful Senior class play, Cheaper by the Dozen.

Our Sports Editors—
Johnne and Dirk!!!

The bright spring morn of a sleepless night,
It brings with it the banners bright.
The warm gold sun of a clear June day,
Releases us to find our way.

Now after many moons have shined,
On work, on study, and our good times,
Finally we go to place,
Our learned pedestal among the race.

As our friends pass by our eyes,
With minds and hearts that know no lies,
With heavy thoughts we go unto,
To seek the world we've wanted to.

Alas, our friends we'll see no more,
Unless in future times of yore,
When some time or again somewhere,
You'll need a friend and they'll all be there.

Student Life

Very Interesting!

Don't worry Fred, I'll get you a date.

Burrrp!

MR. MURPHY!!!

Rinky Dink.

But Mrs. Waggy!!

Psst! Don't get caught.

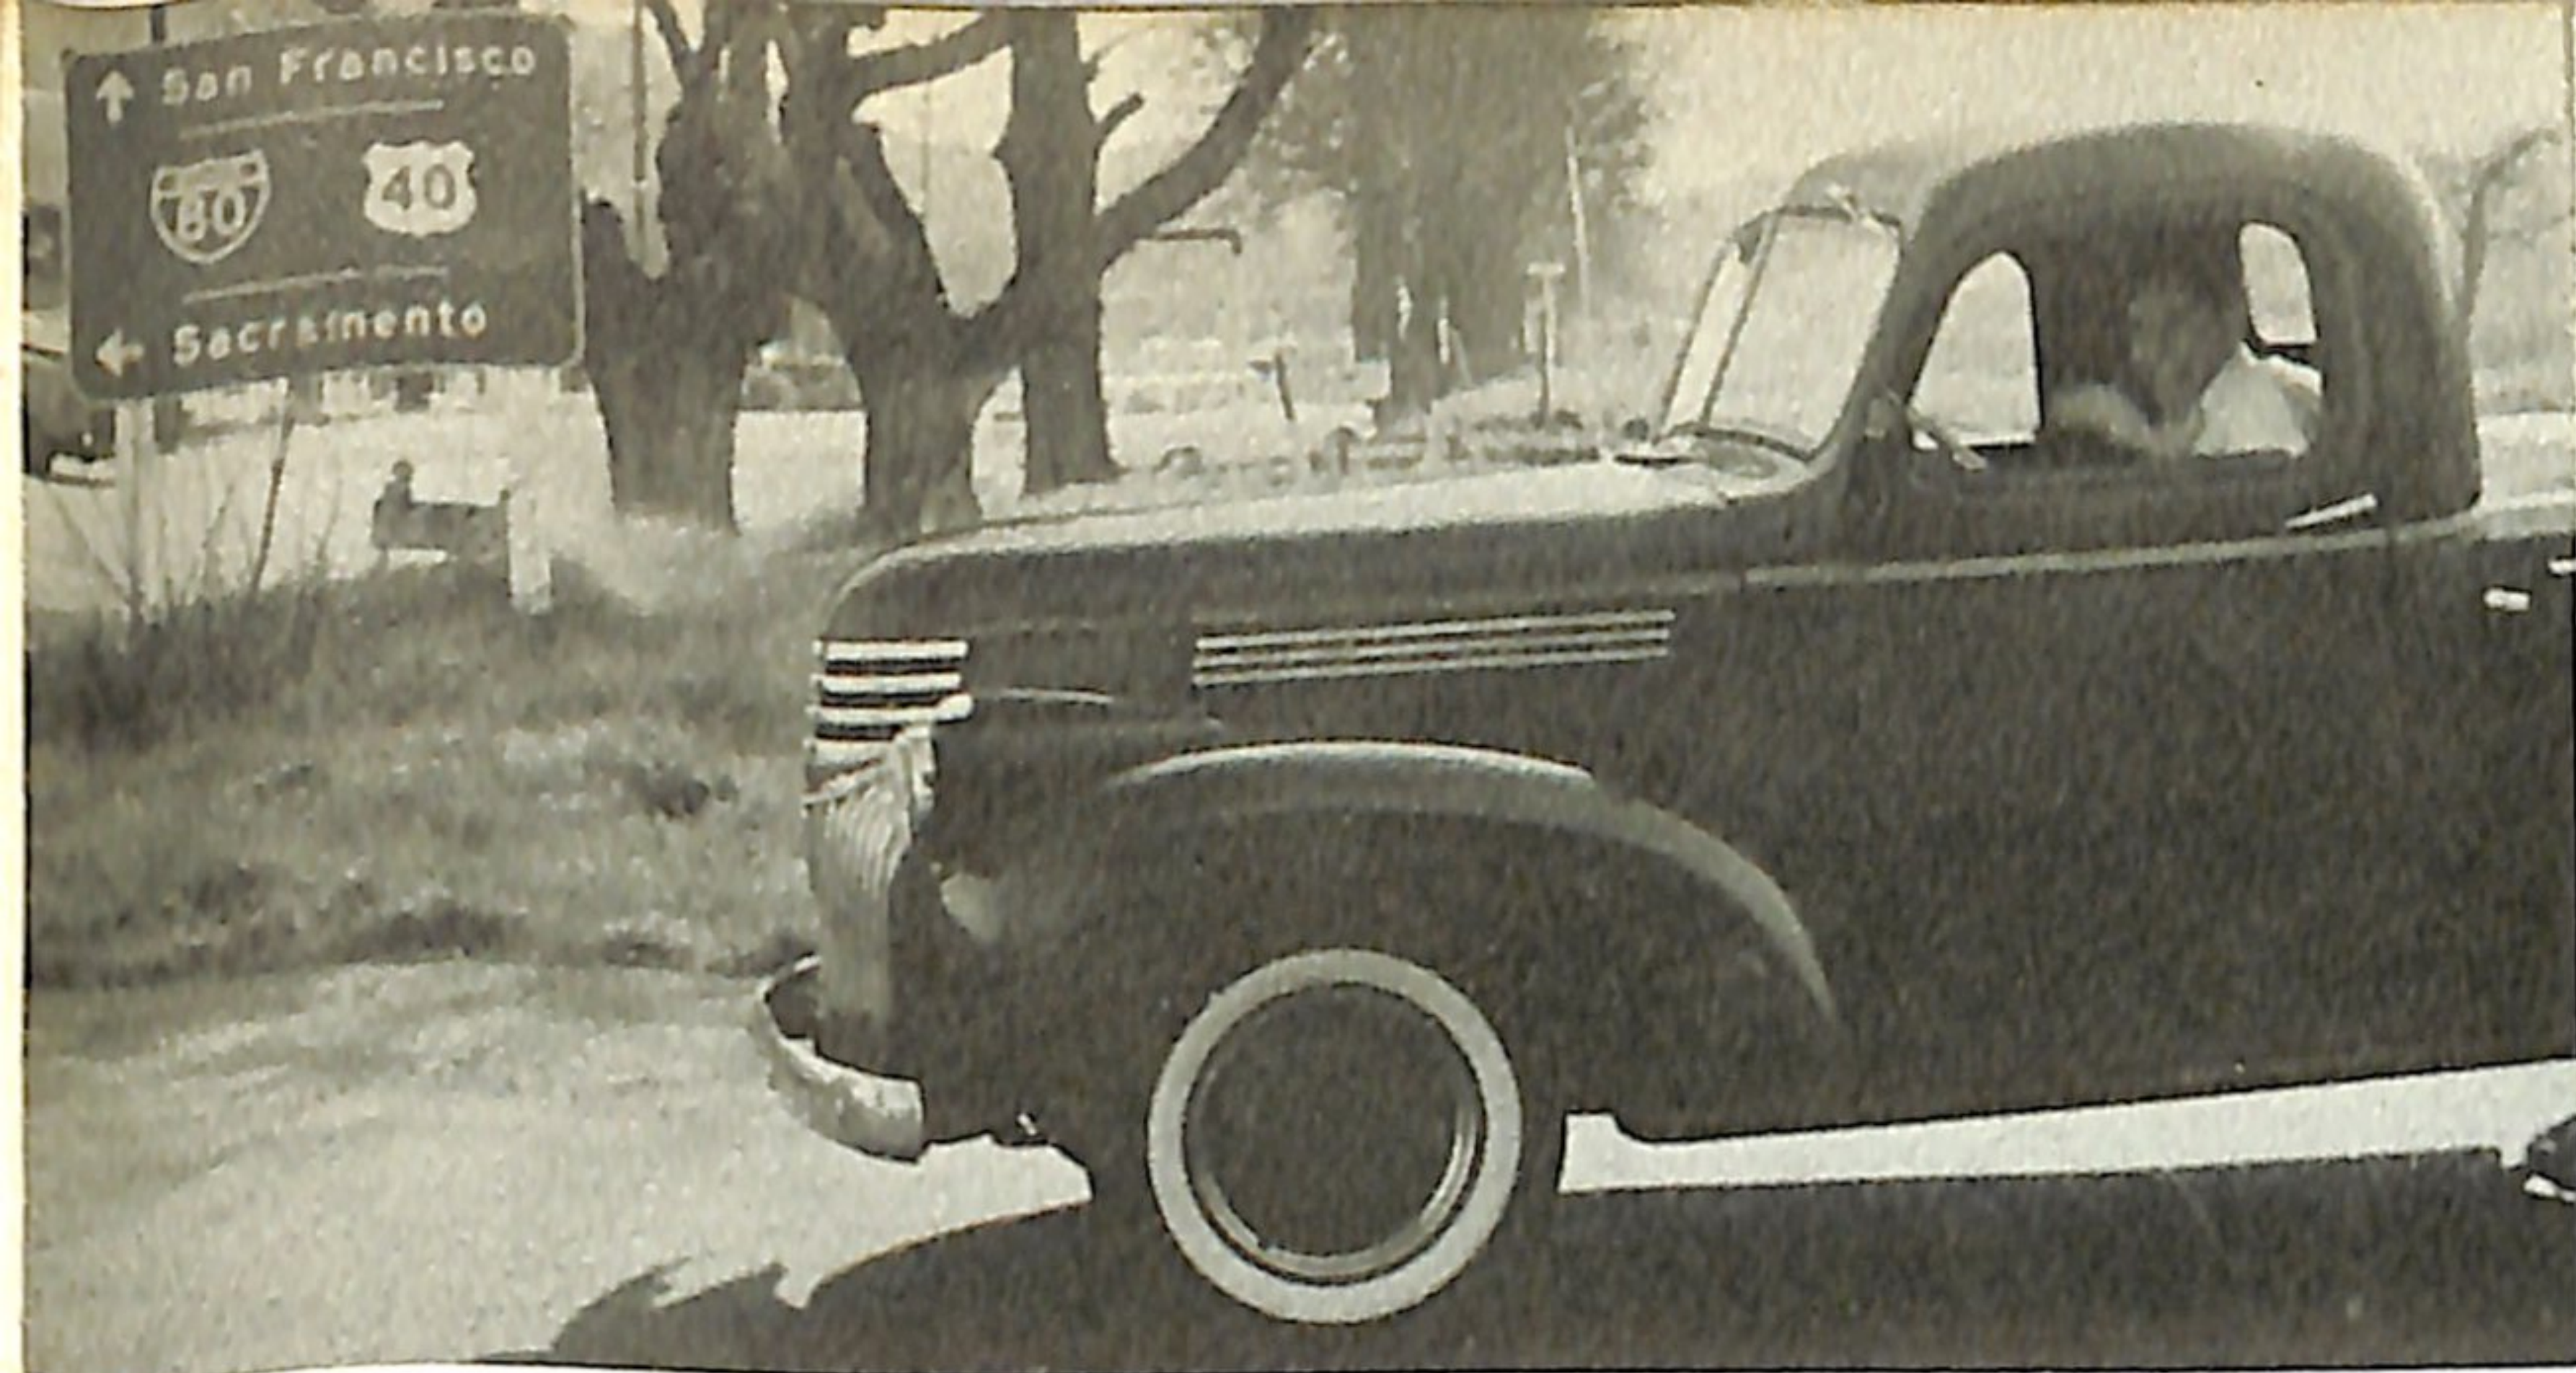

Follow Me.

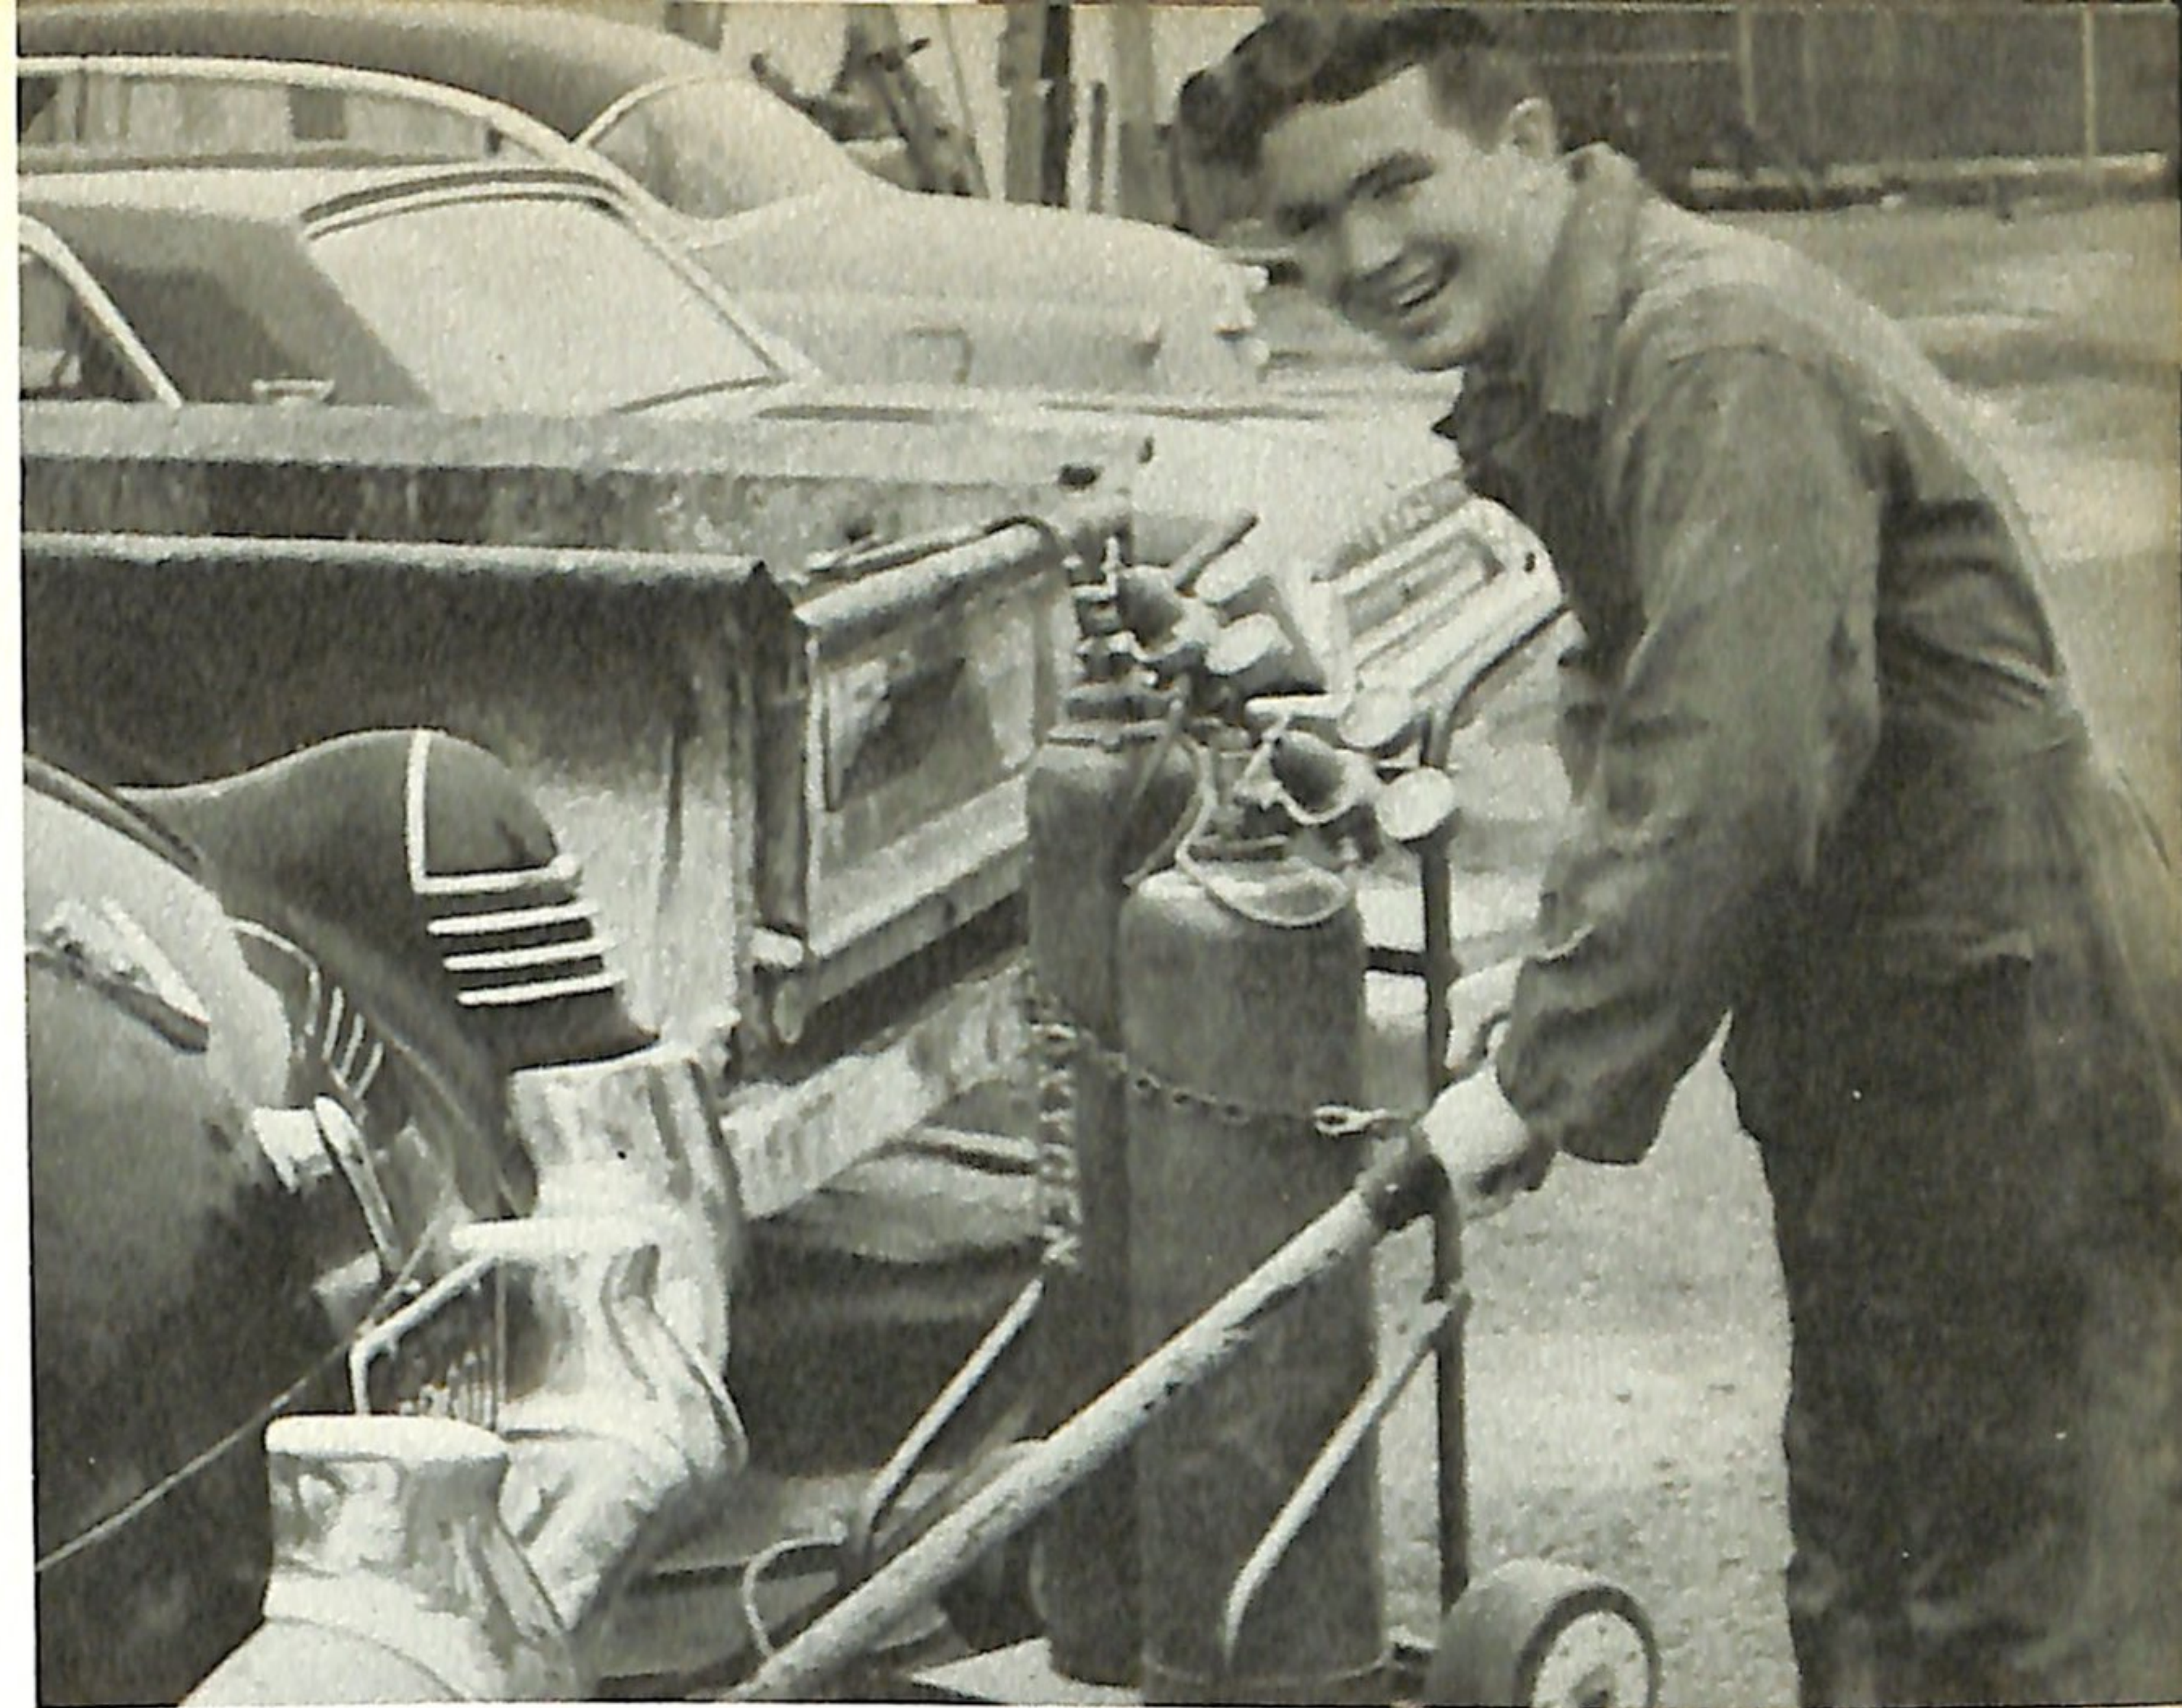

What's that one again?

Come on, Let's Drag!

I'll get it back together some day.

Get to work you guys.

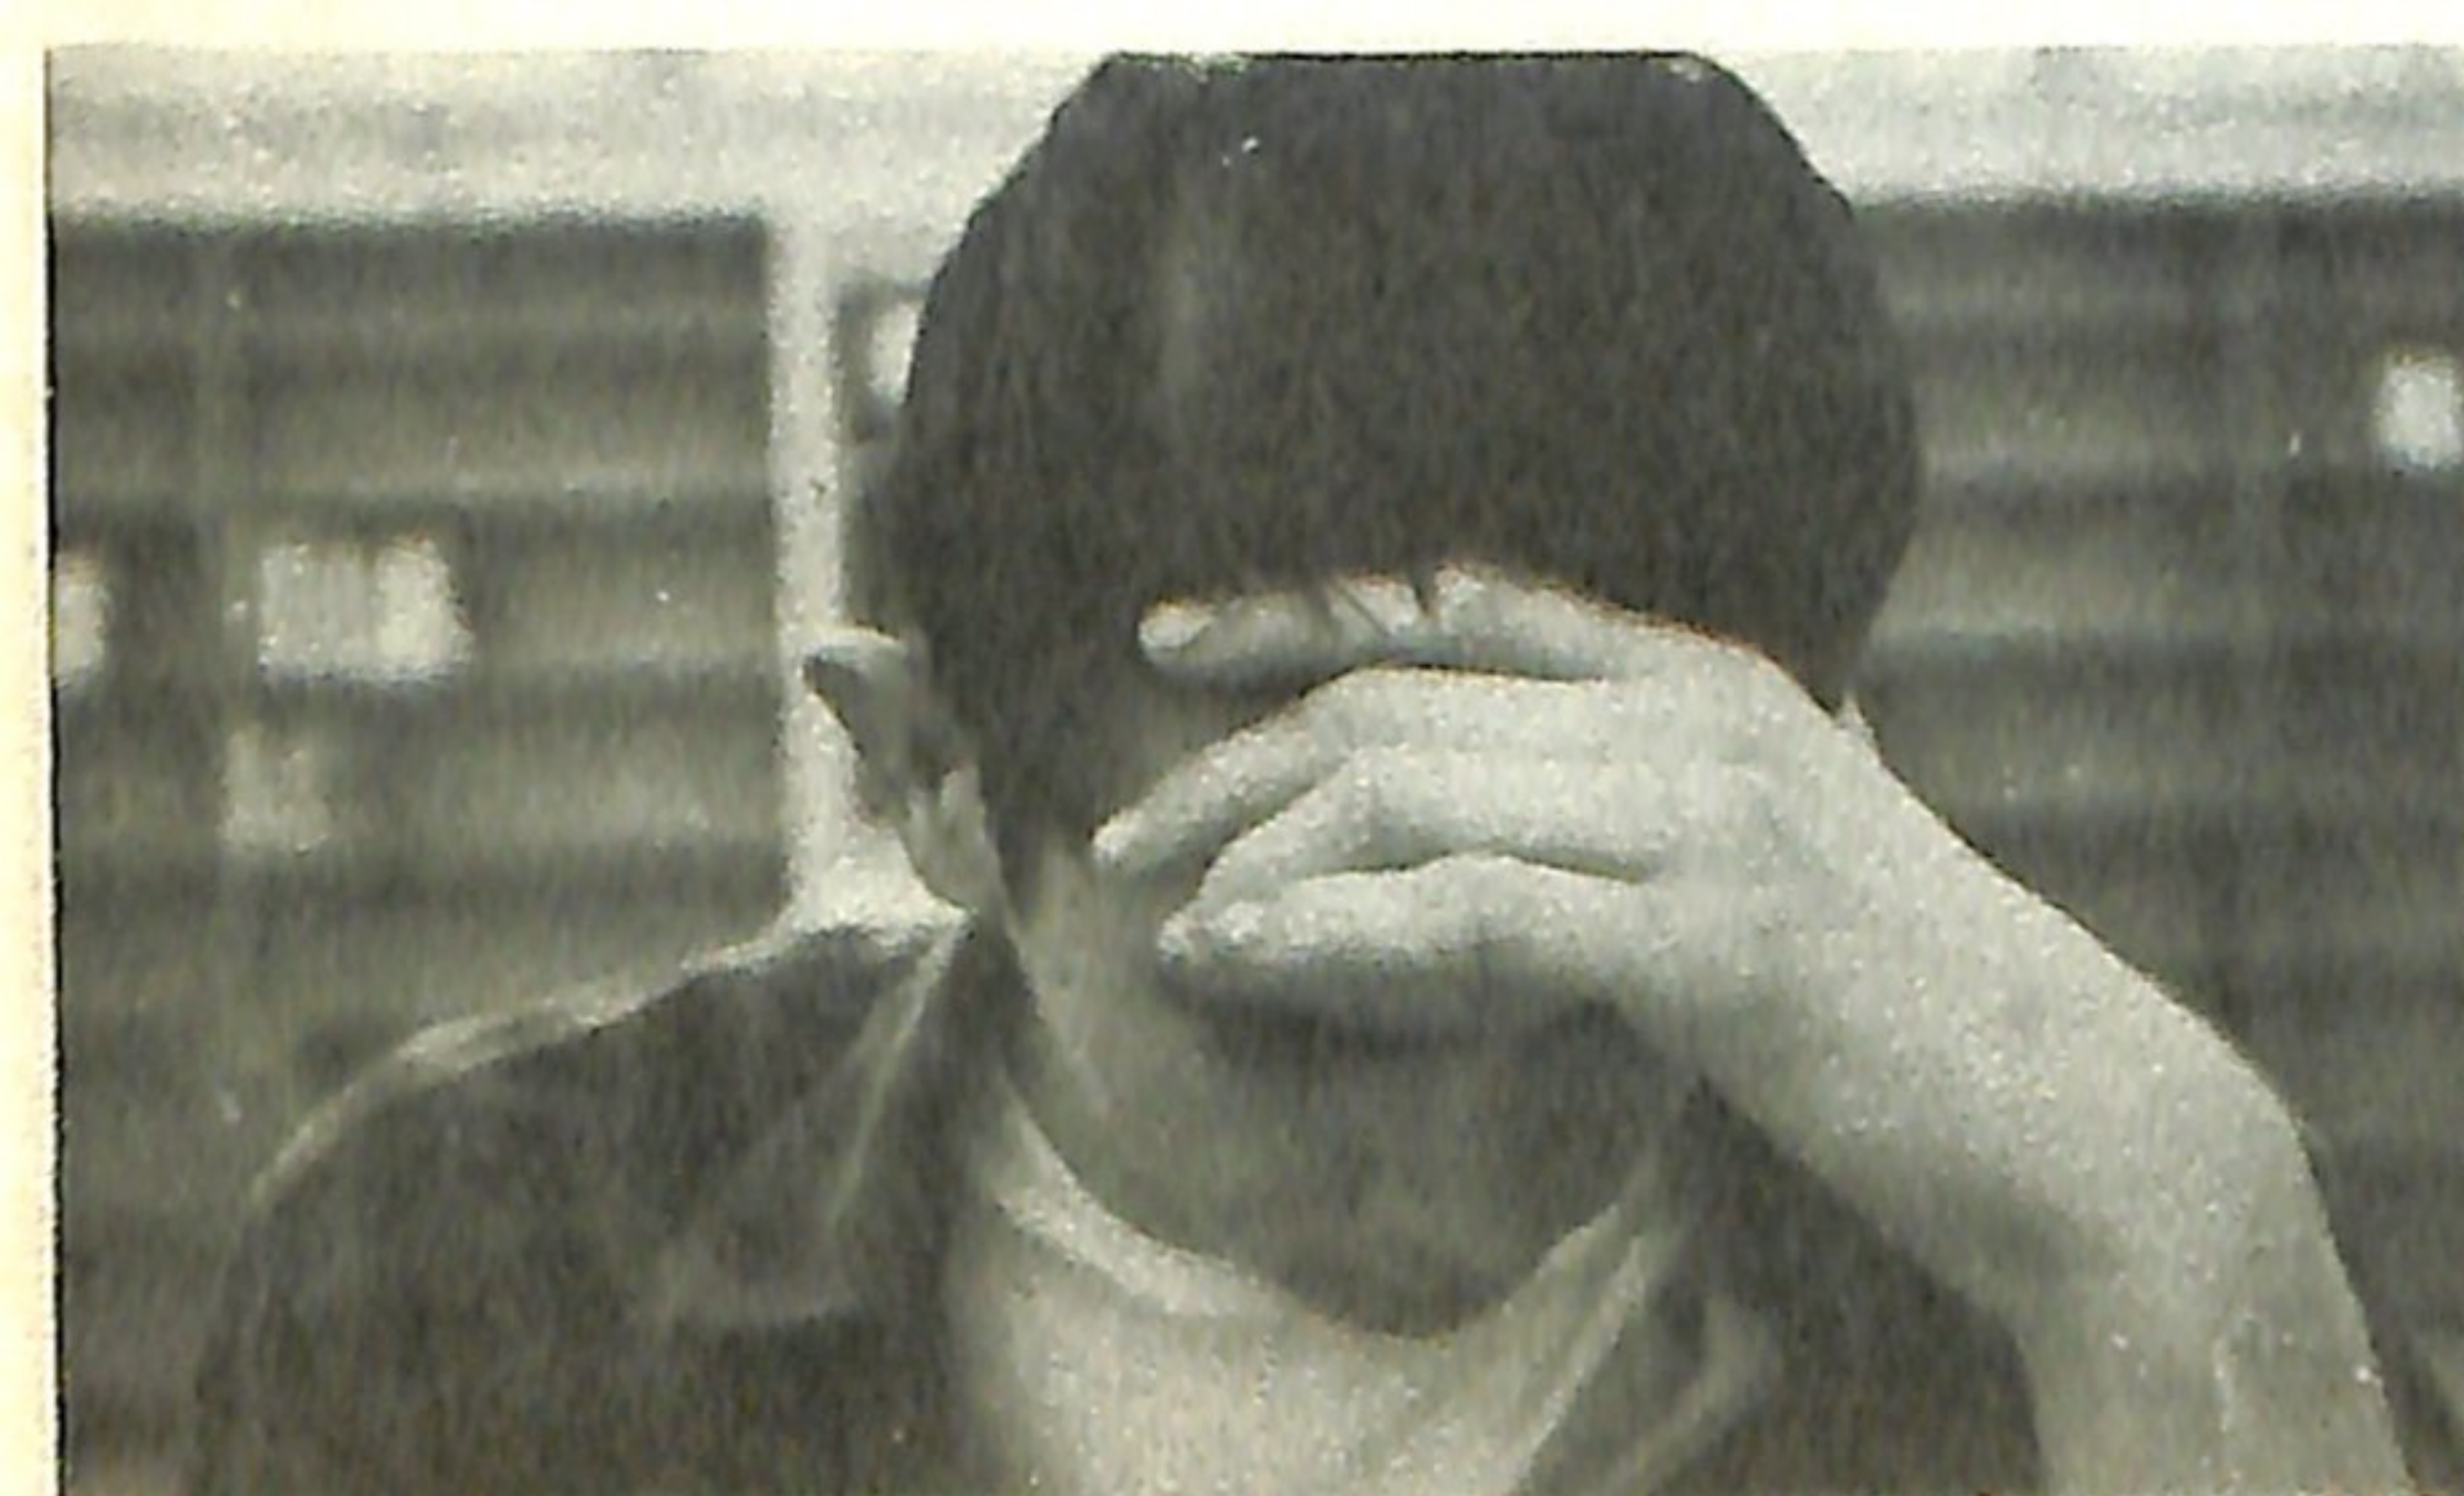

Oh I pulled a sneaky.

Say cheese.

The Thinker

What's ya typin'?

We struck oil on our reservation.

Come on seven.

Who said it's peroxidized?

Just another fire drill.

I beg your pardon.

It's that one in the back that's causing the trouble.

Hey, Connie, are you sure we're right?

Who'd you say was gonna fight?

Hello, out there.

Don't get noseey.

Mama Mia!

Twist and shout!

Yea, he's a six year man.

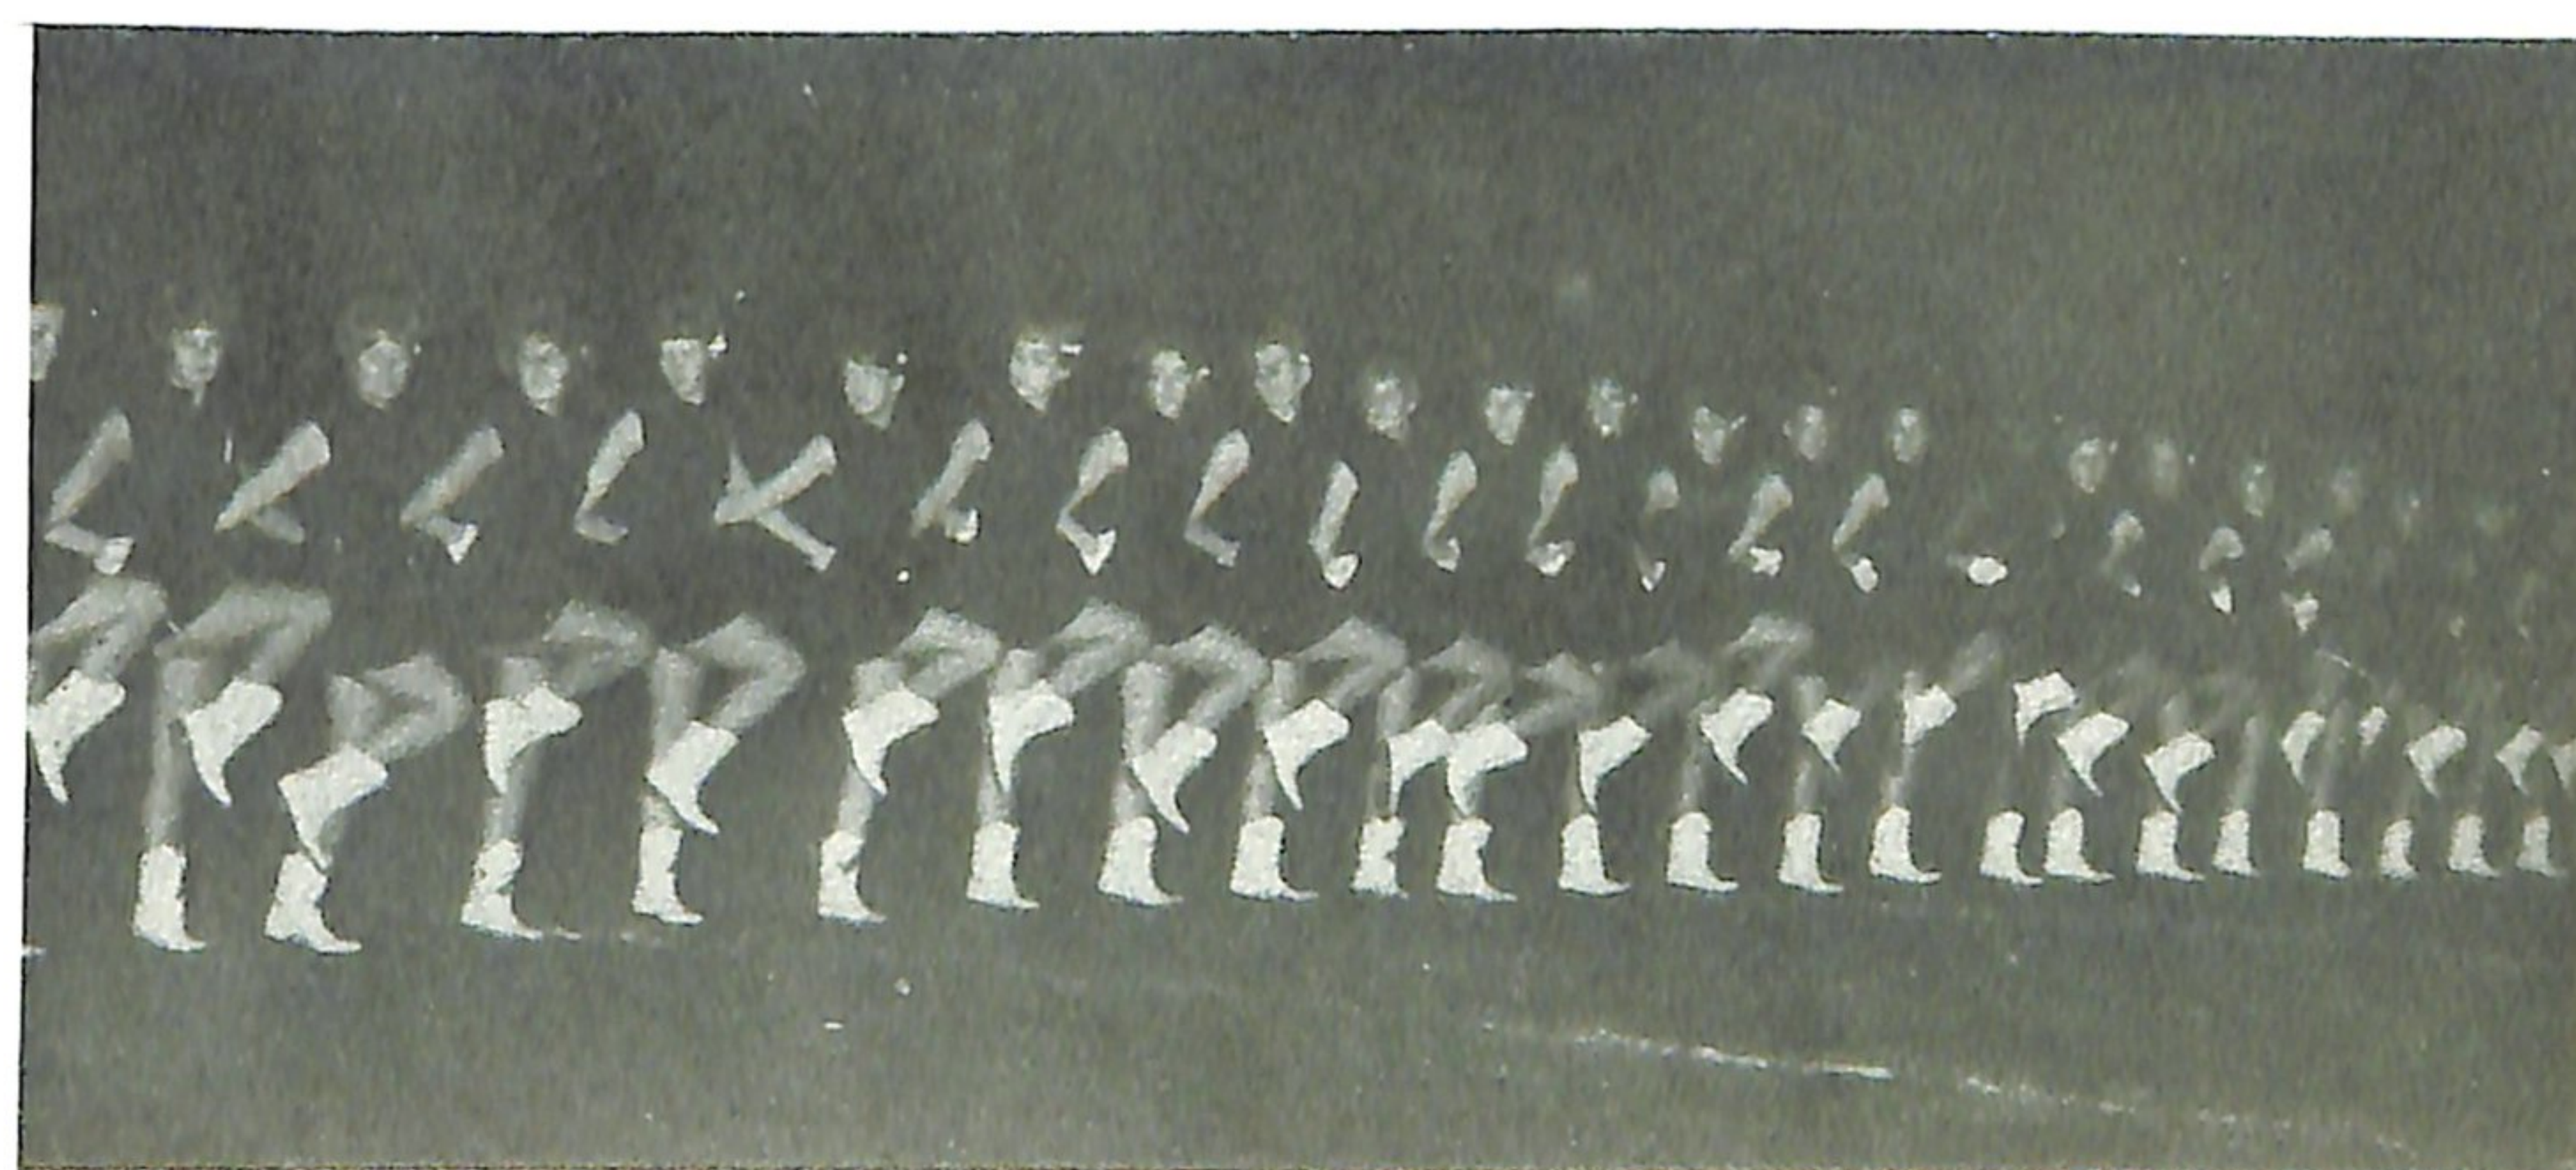

WE're the group that lost.

Say, dude!

I'm never going to the drive-in again.

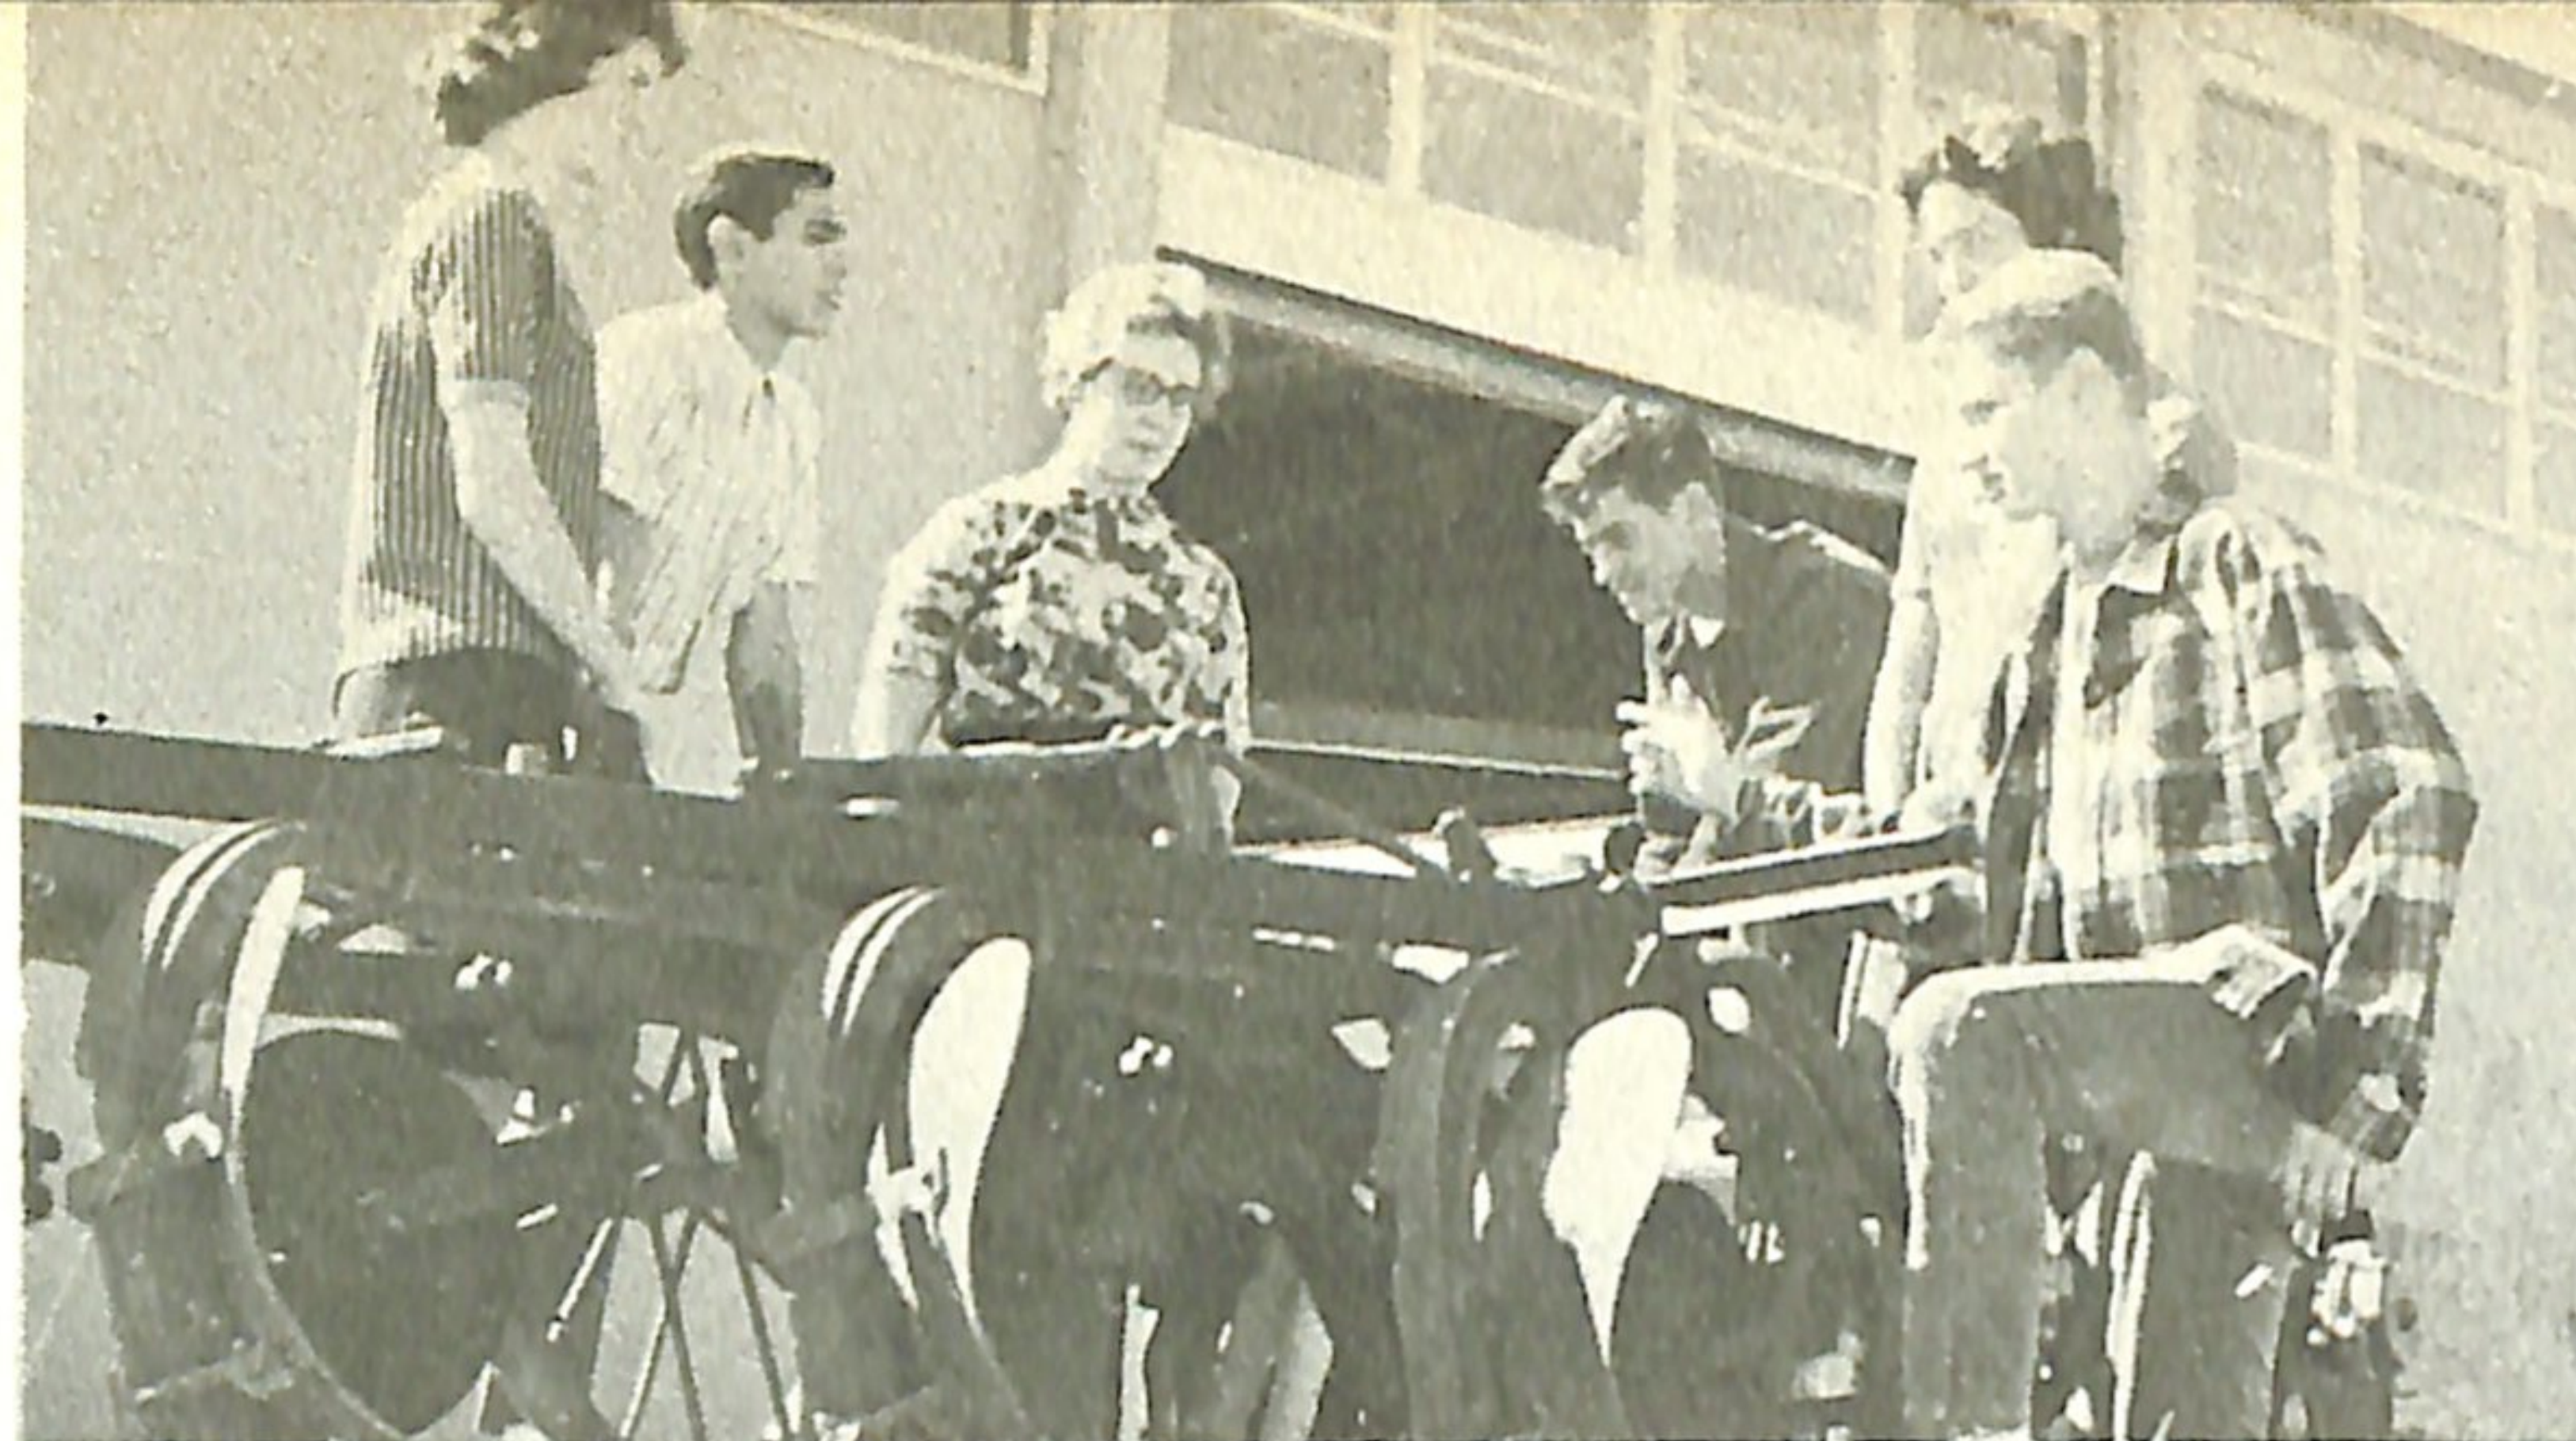

Where do they hide those bathrooms, anyway!

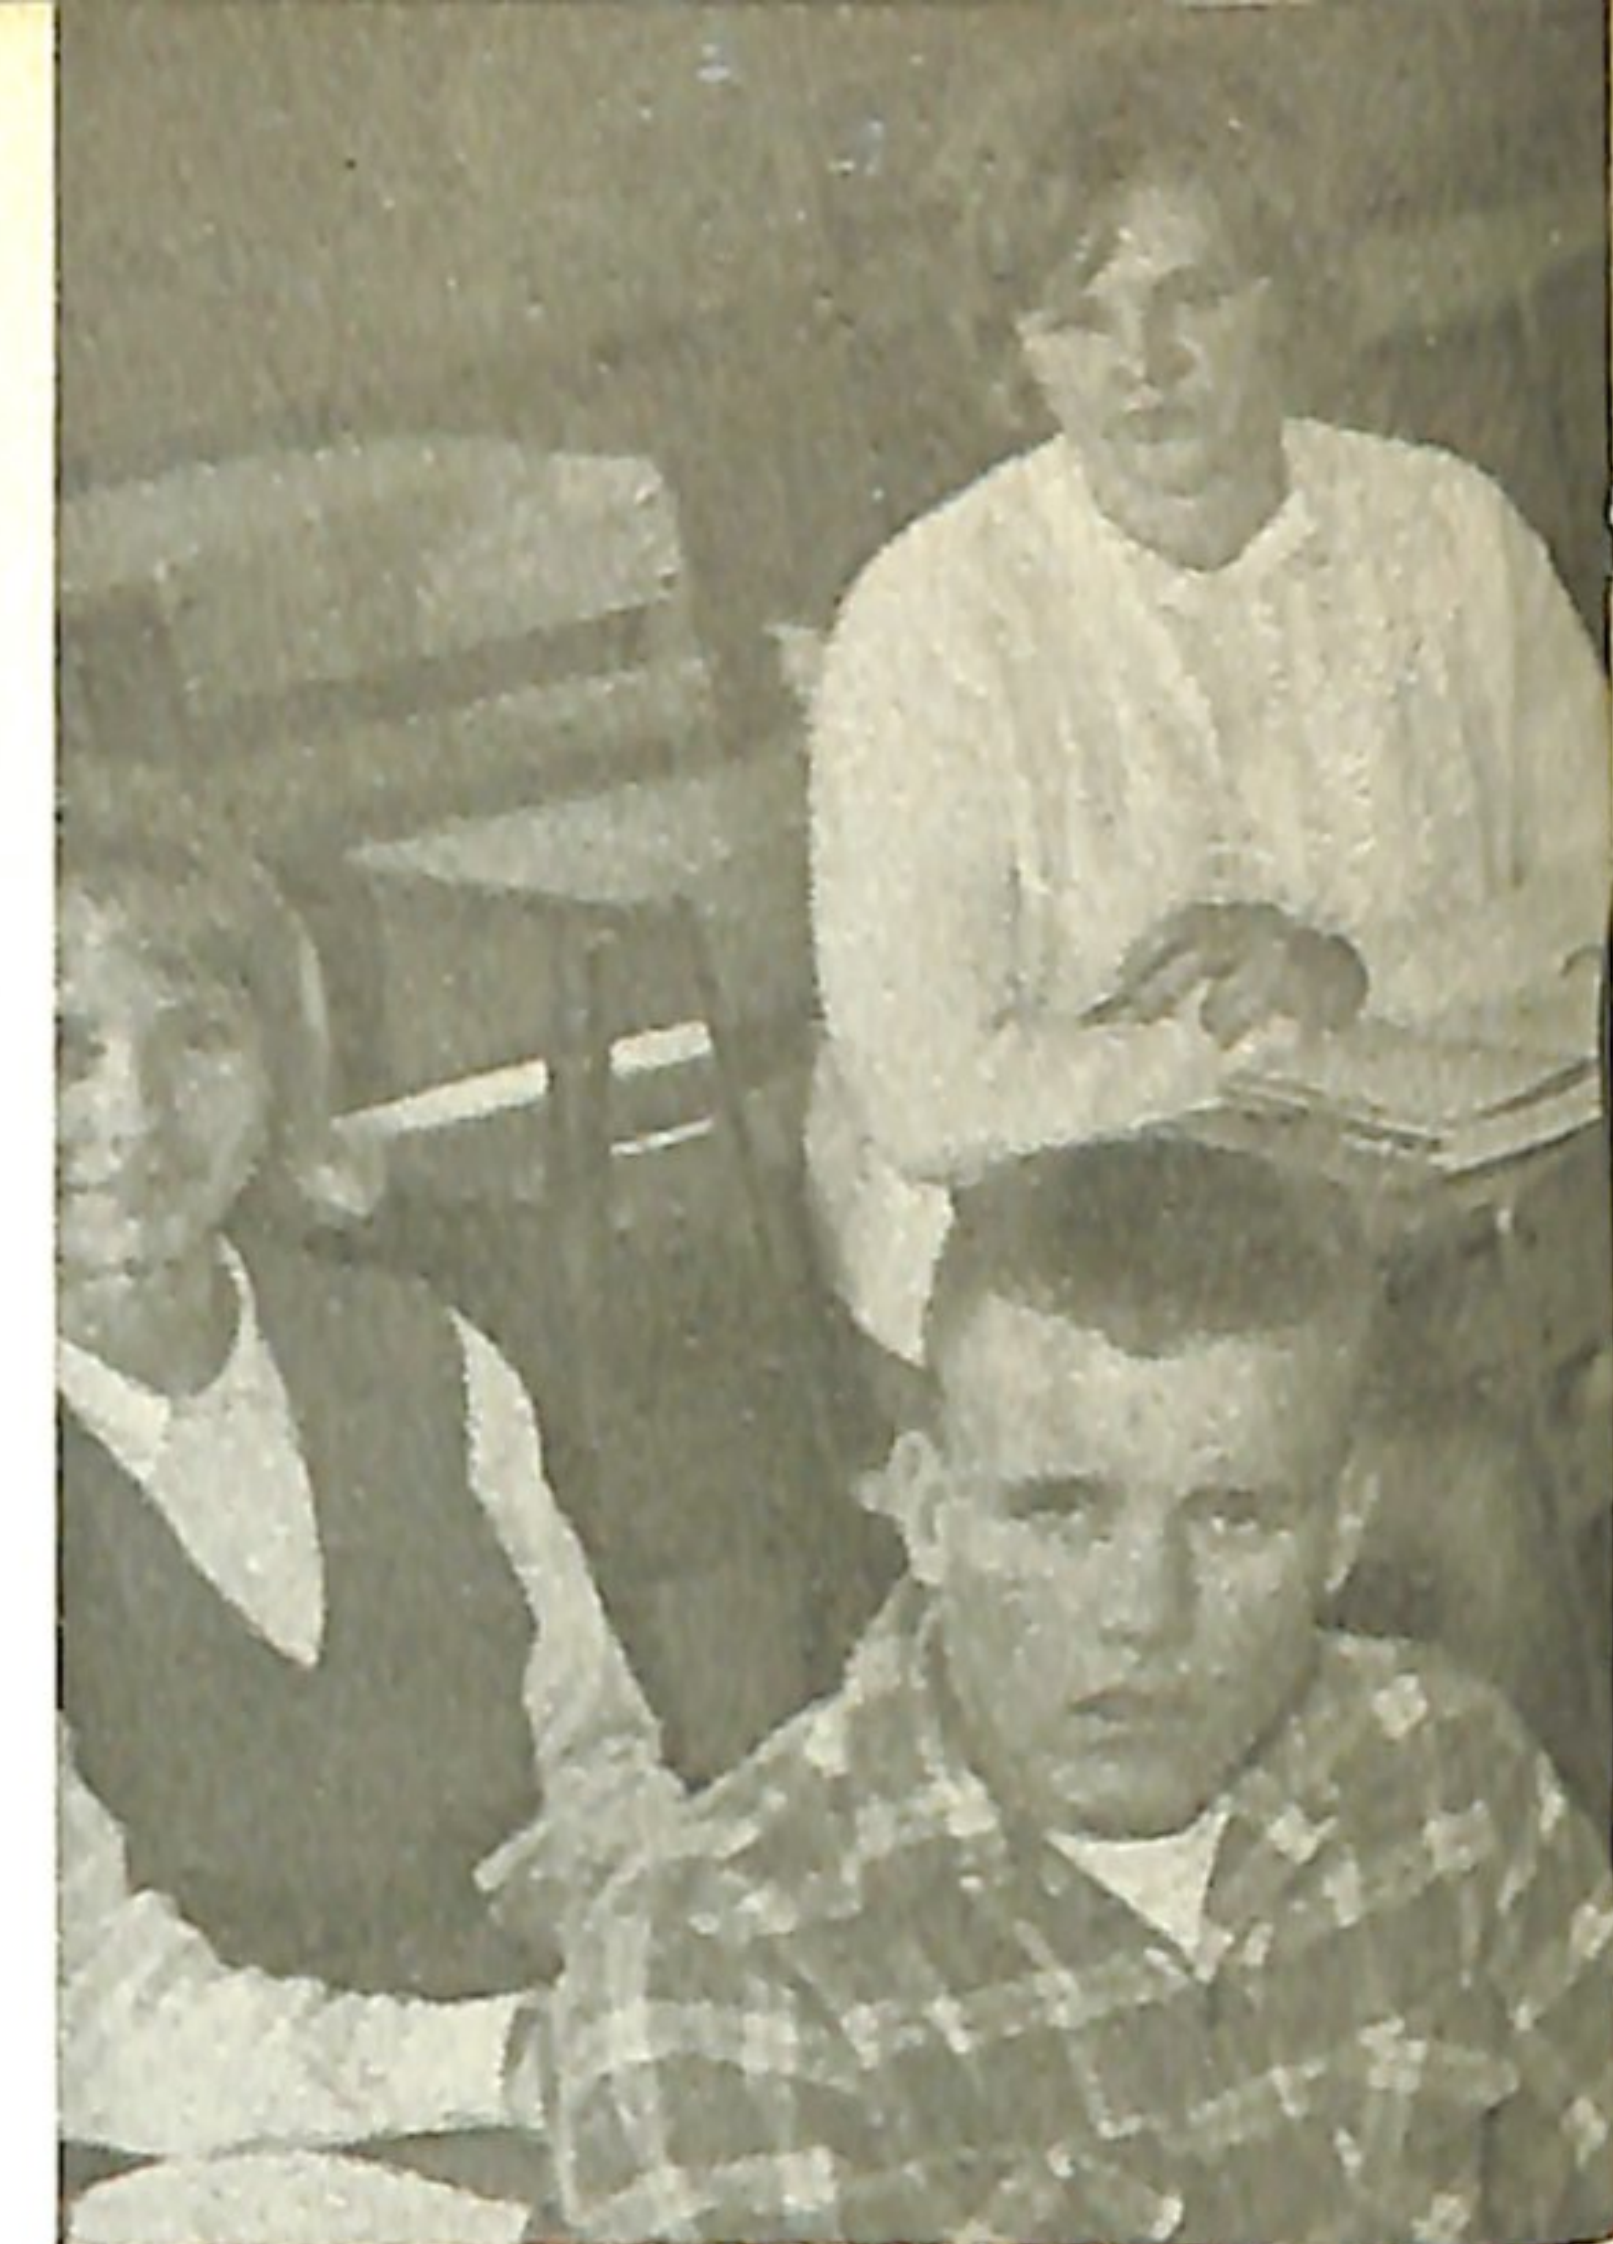

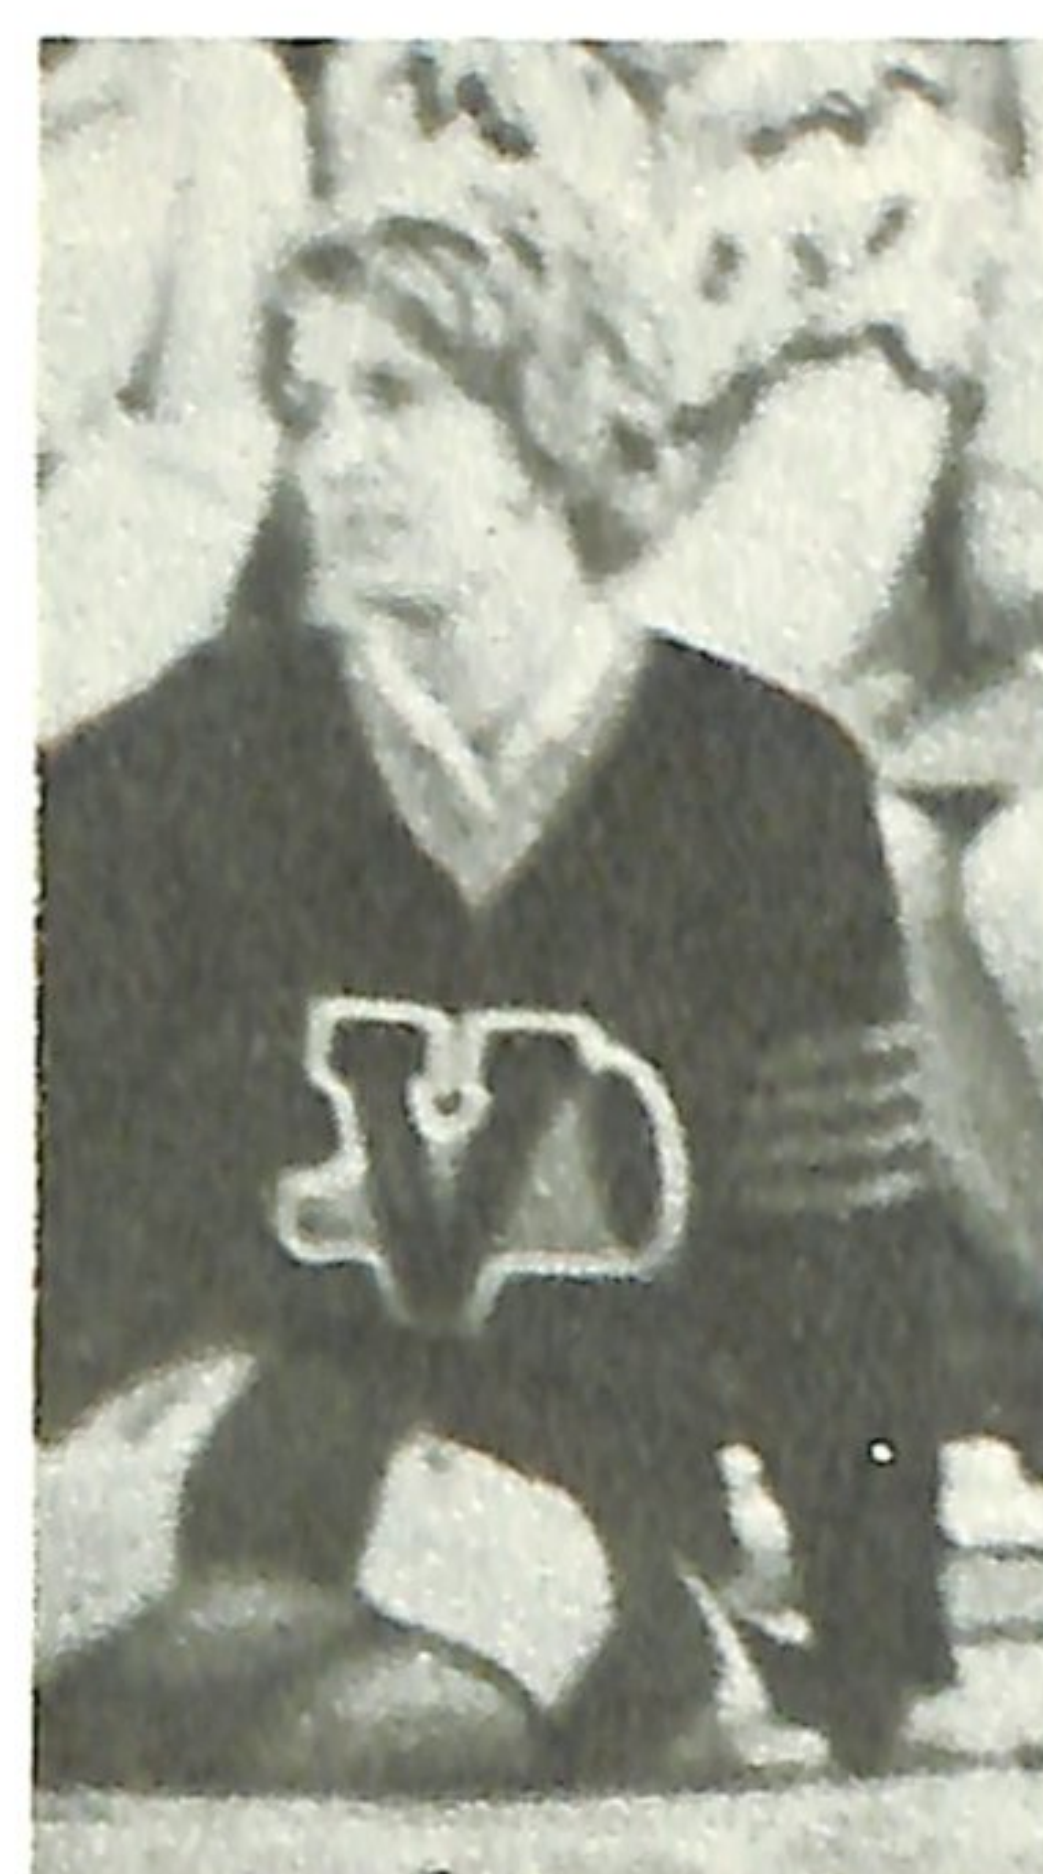

Oh, no! It won't come off my hand.

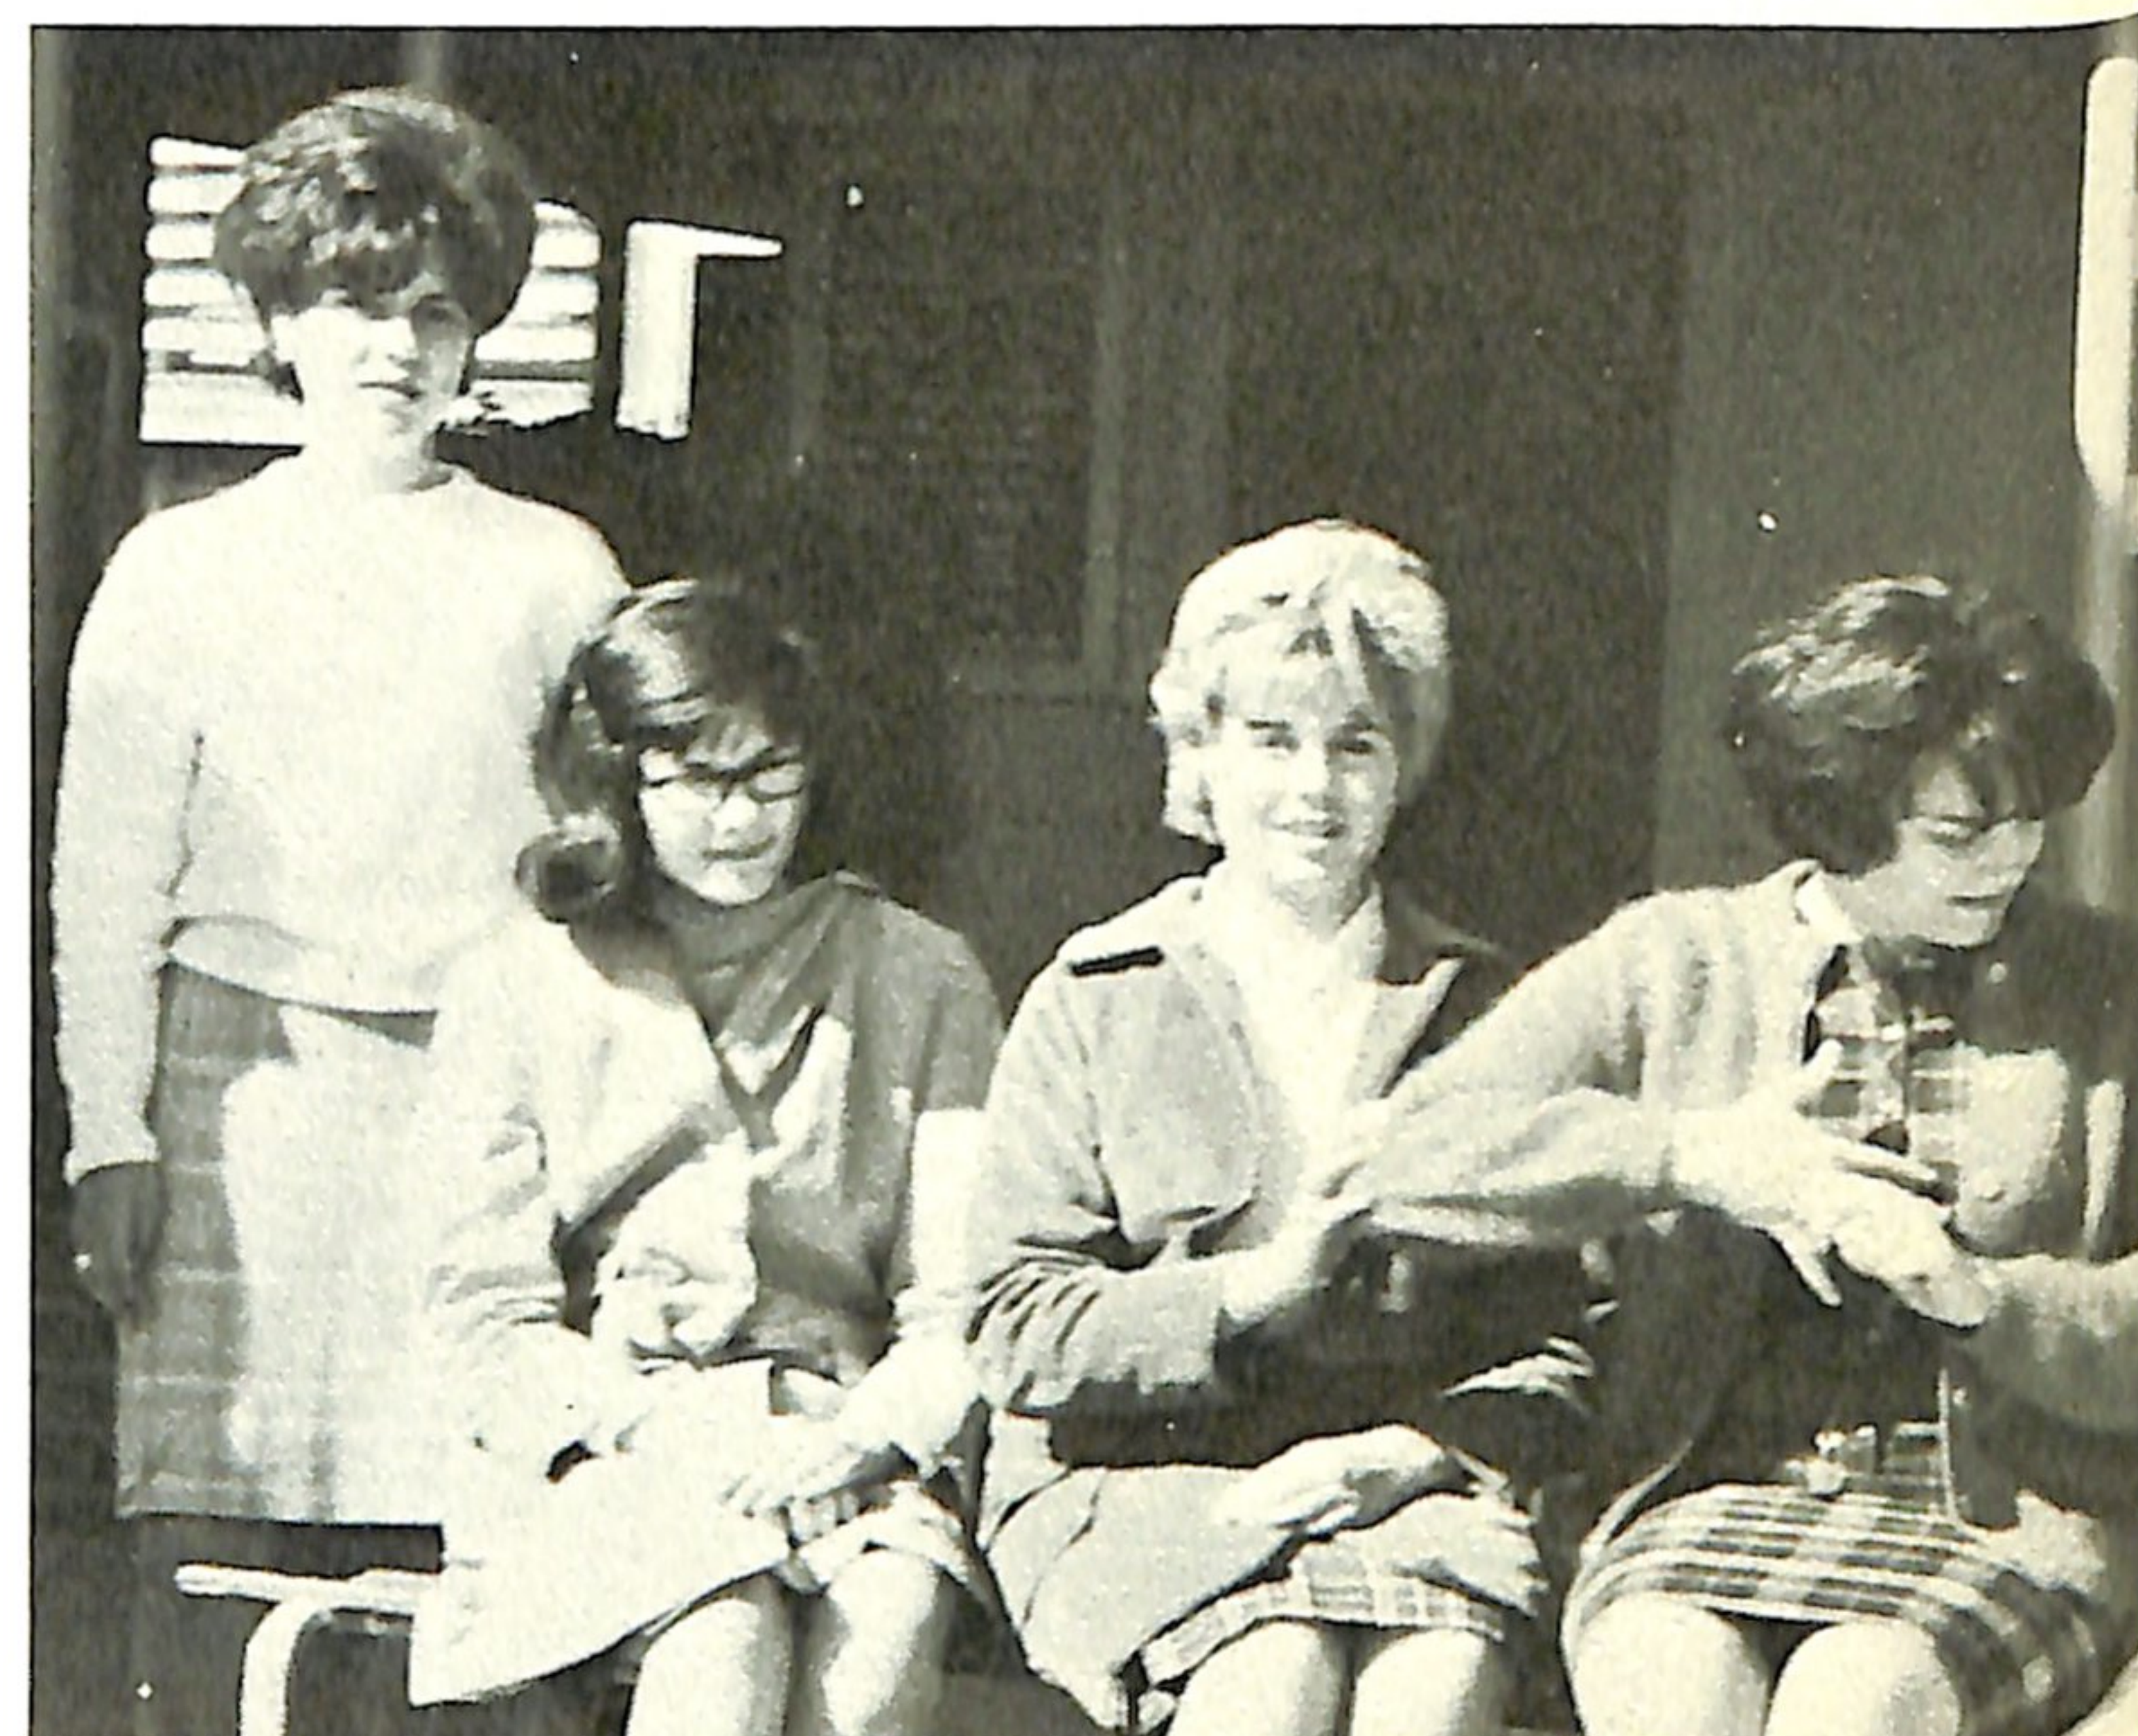

Simple. It's broken.

What do you mean, "You are there?"

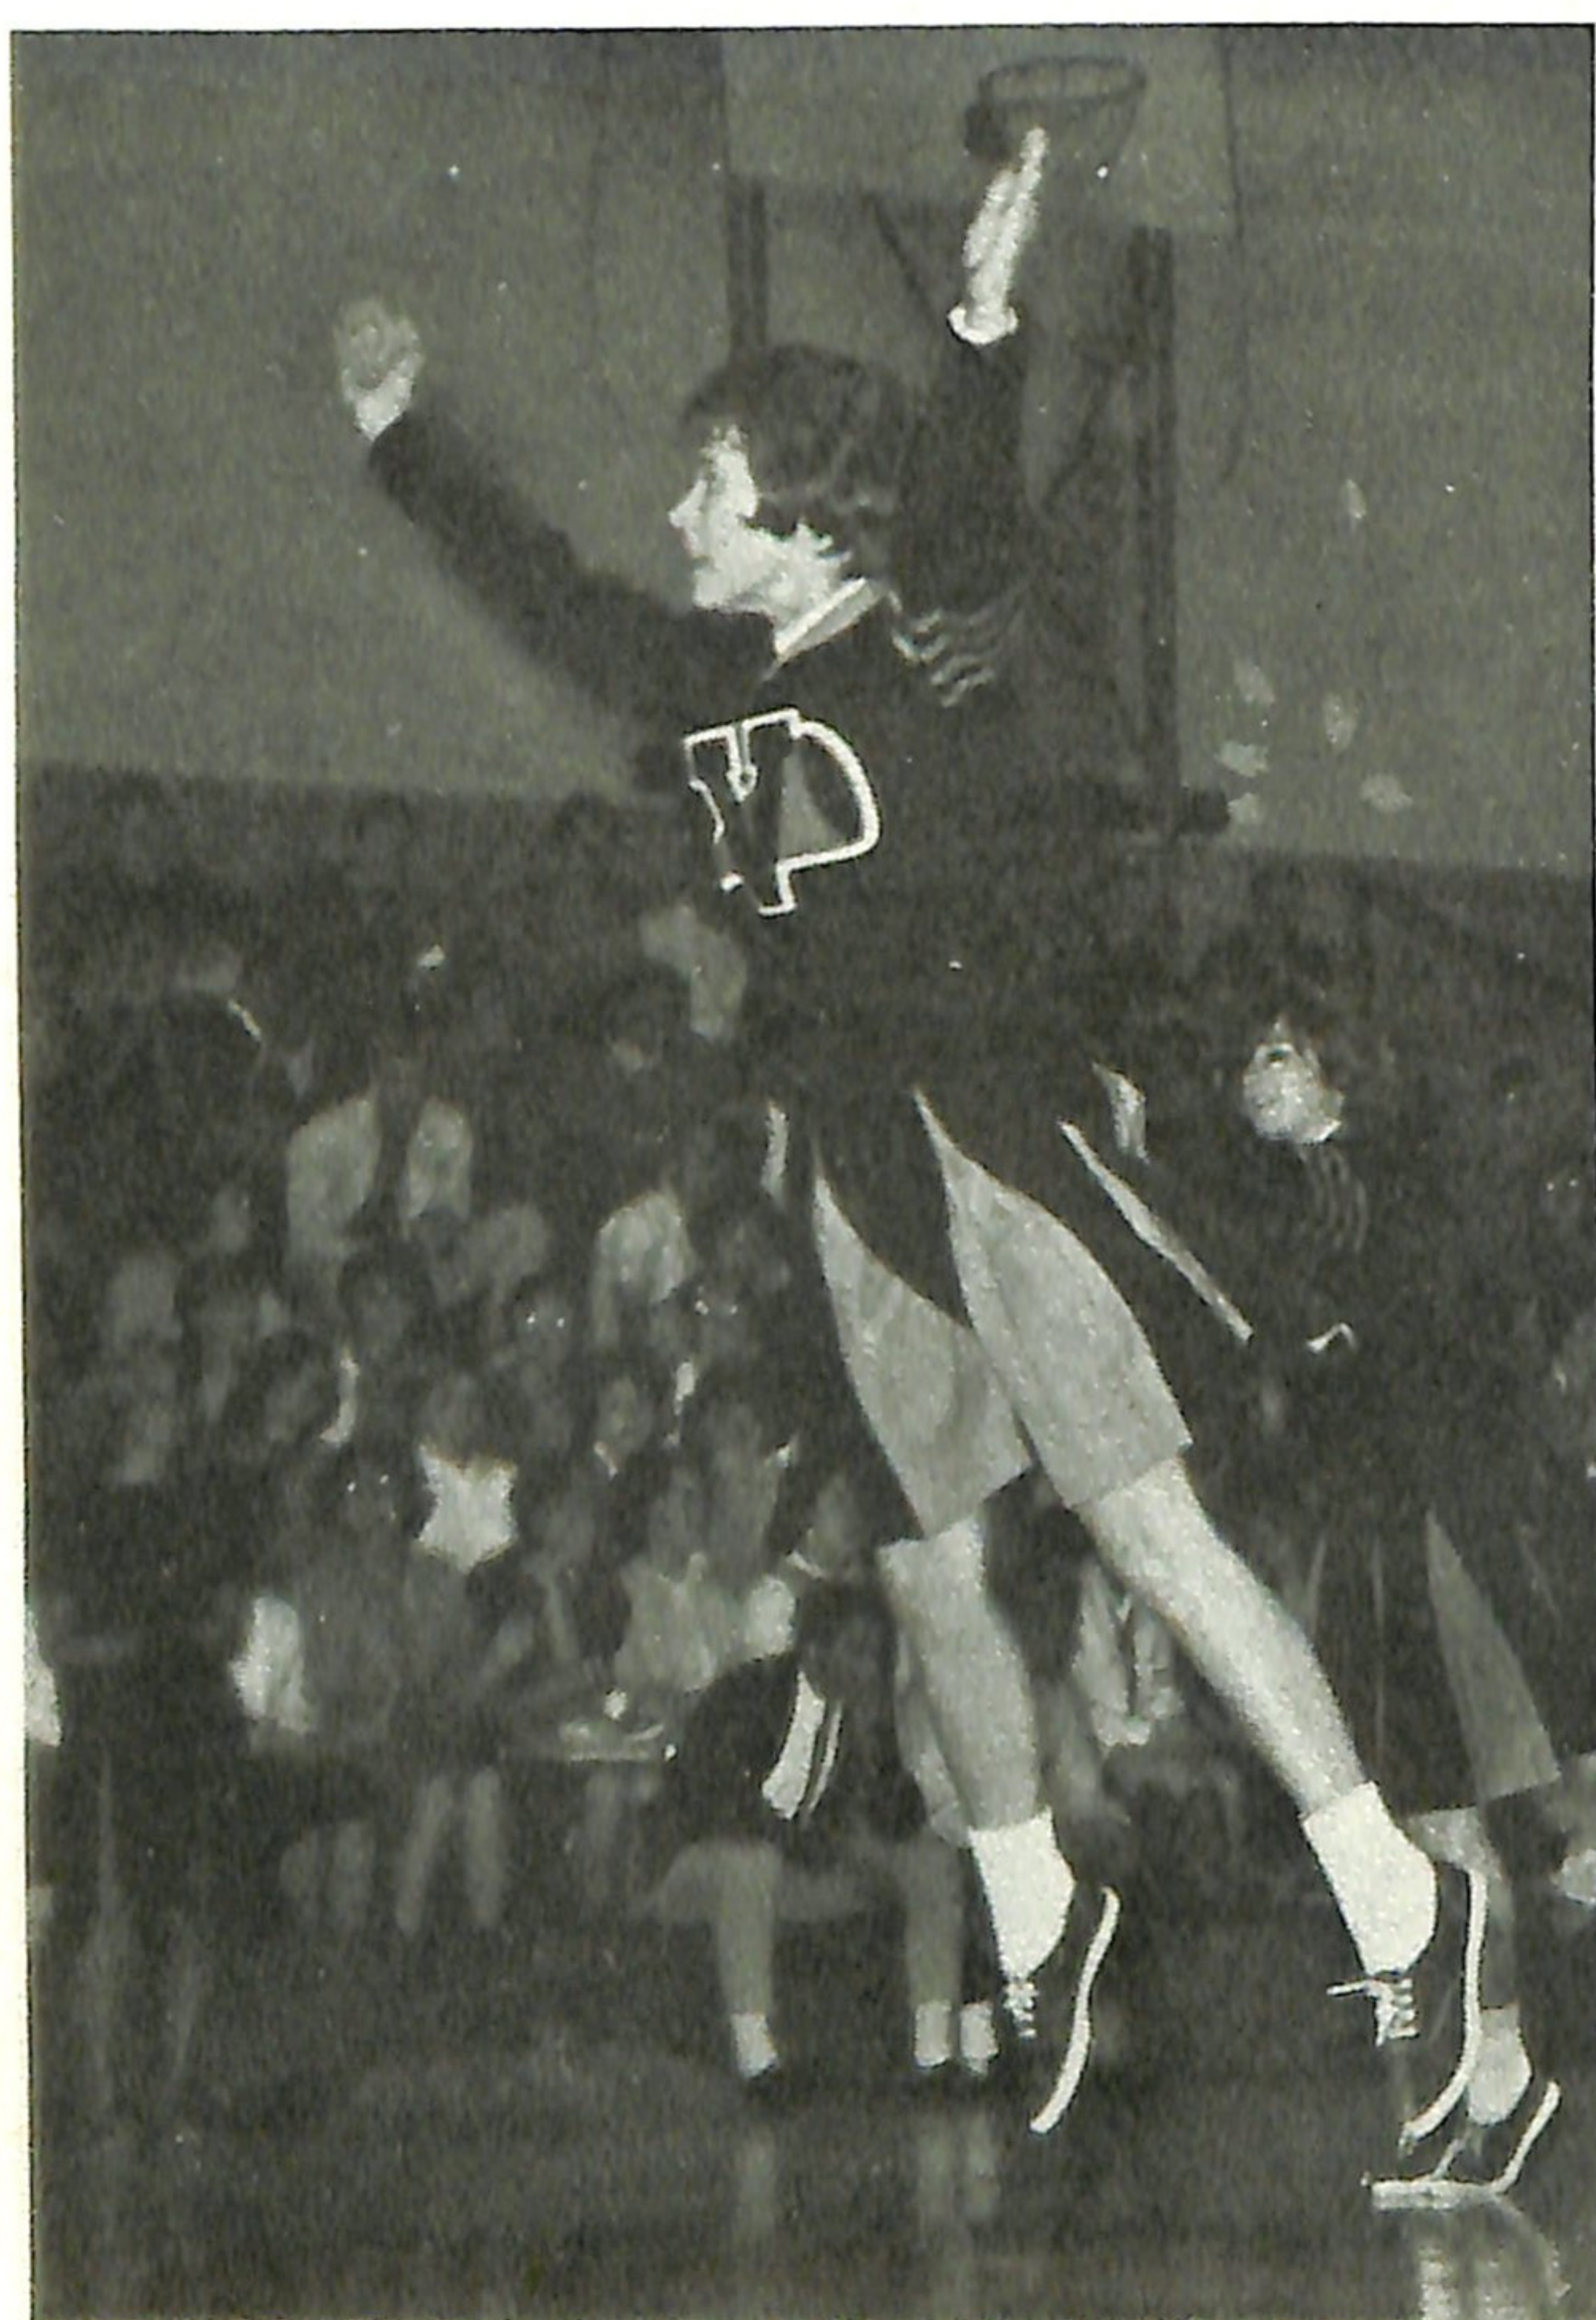

And Dave was doing so well!

Hey, Donna, someone is watching you.

Do you smell what I smell

Who's got the horn?

Haven't you ever seen a pantaloons before?

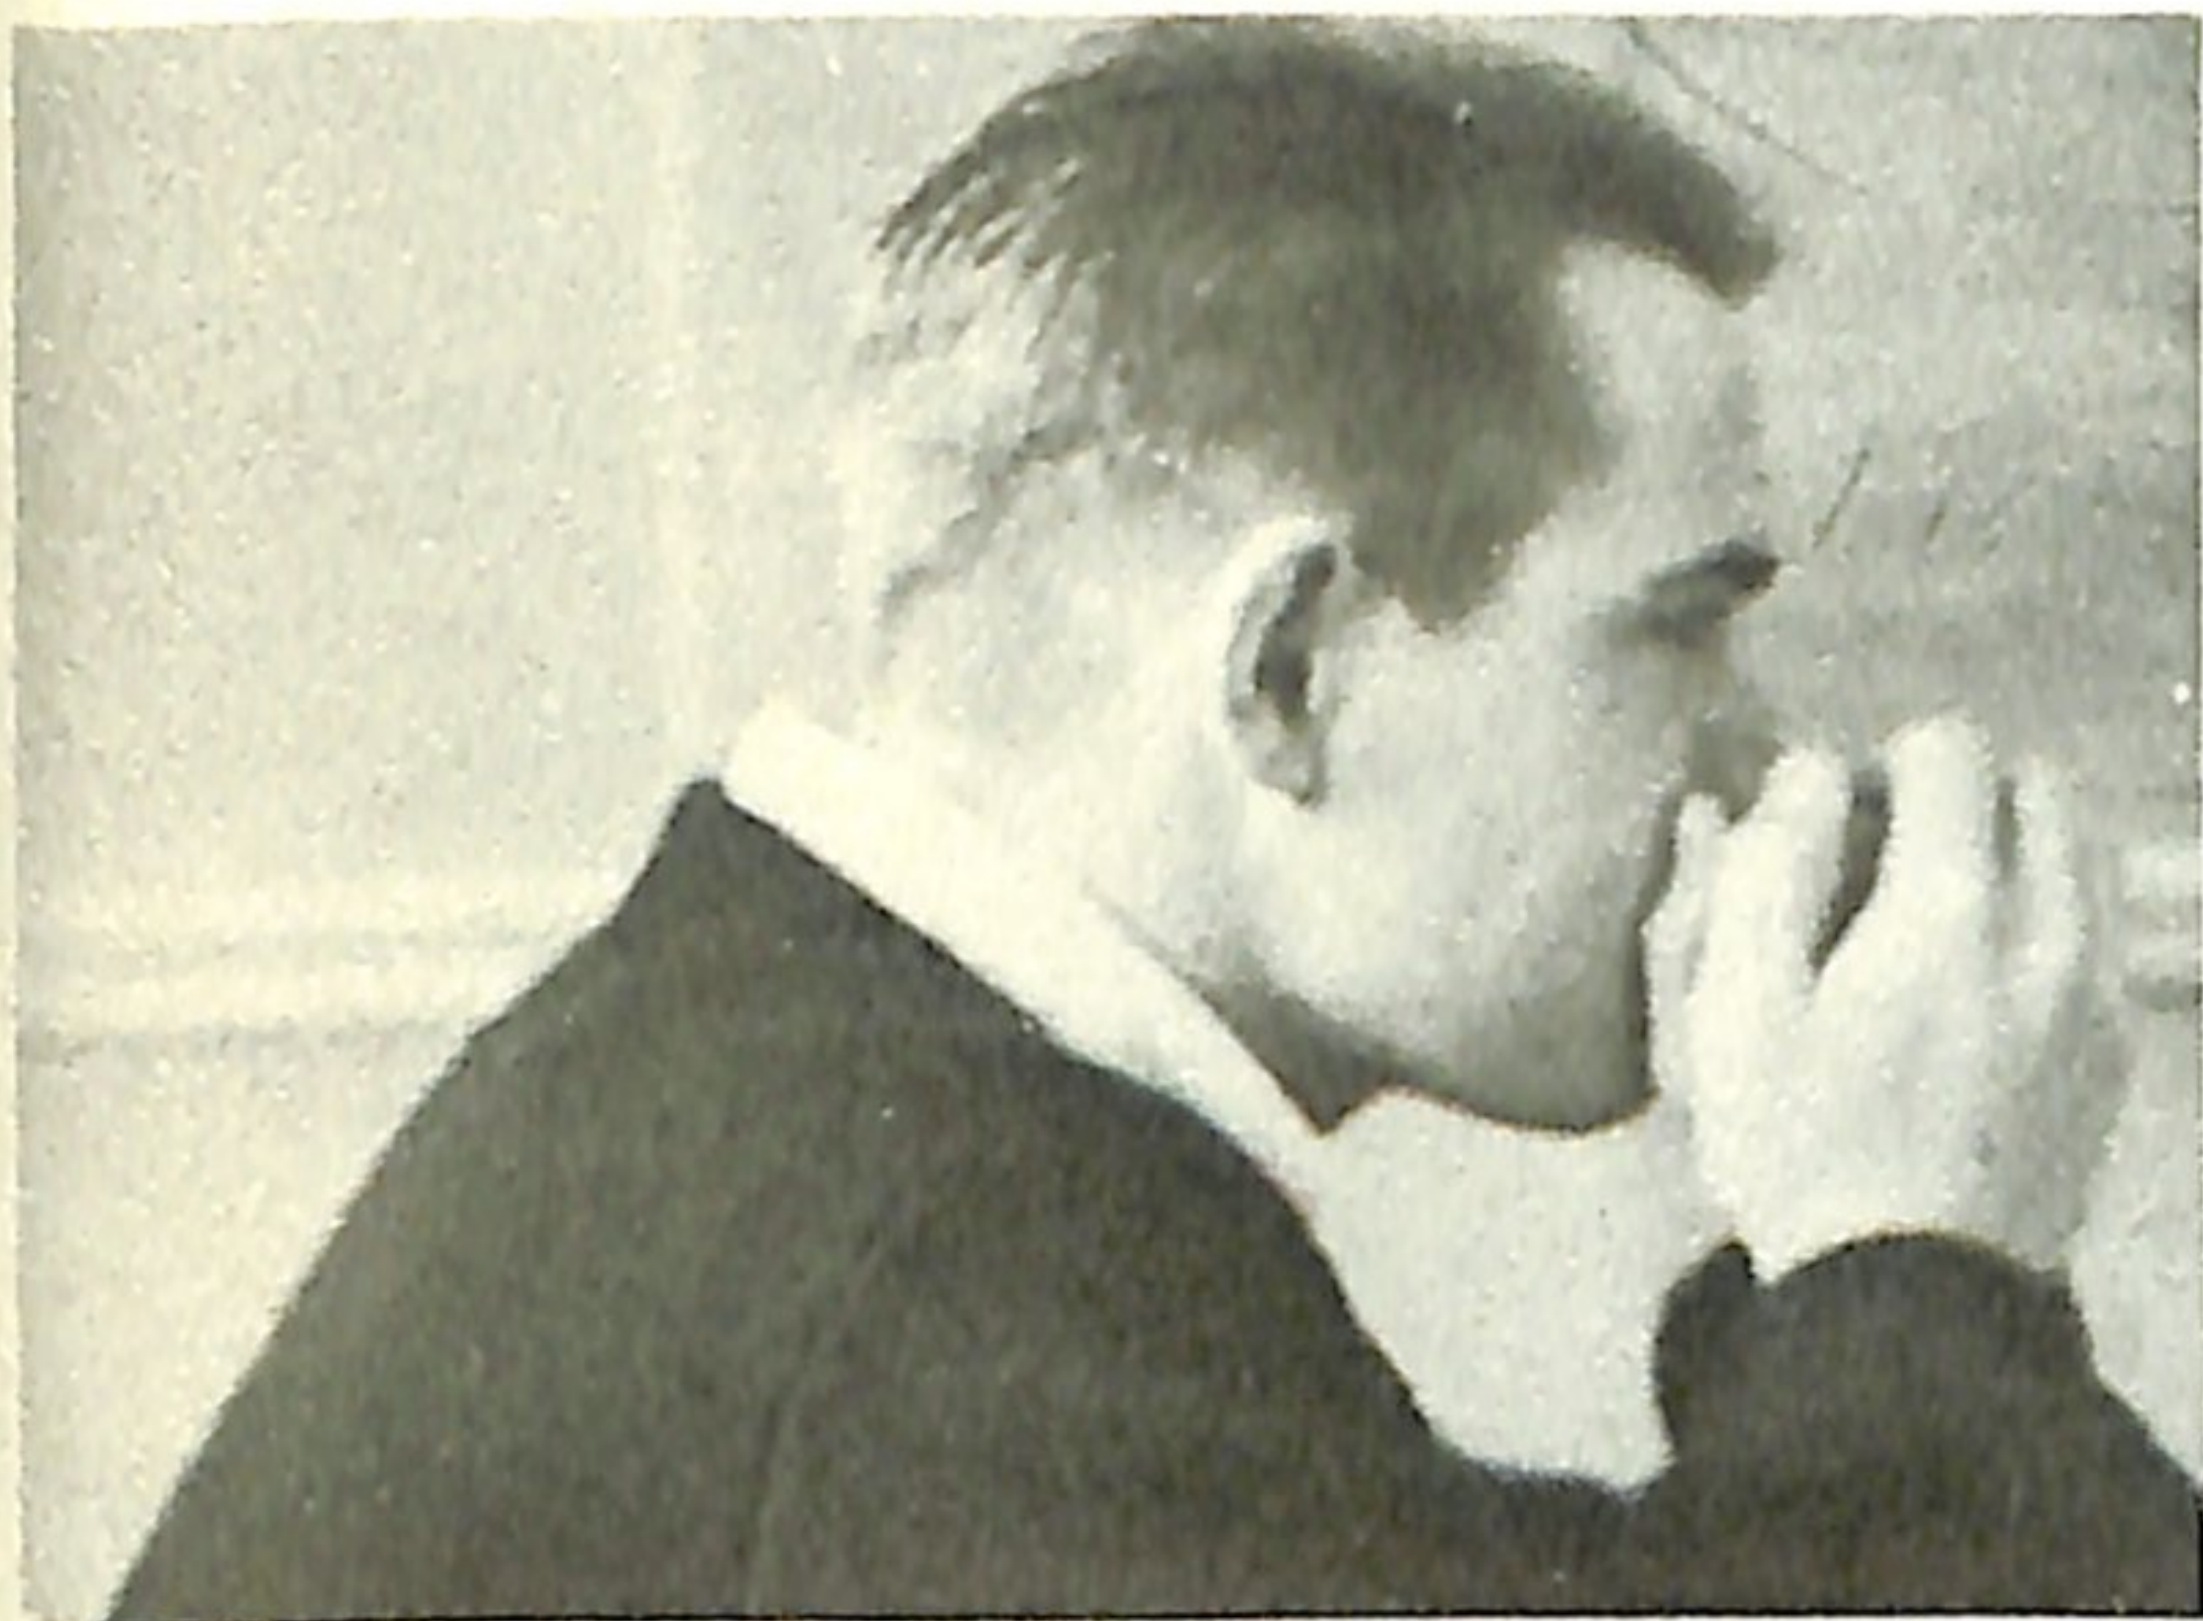

"I never did like '57 Fords, anyway."

"Will you please not stand on my new Cons."

"Hope I can sell my Volkswagen."

Yes, Vaca High is full of them.

"Which end is ours, anyway?"

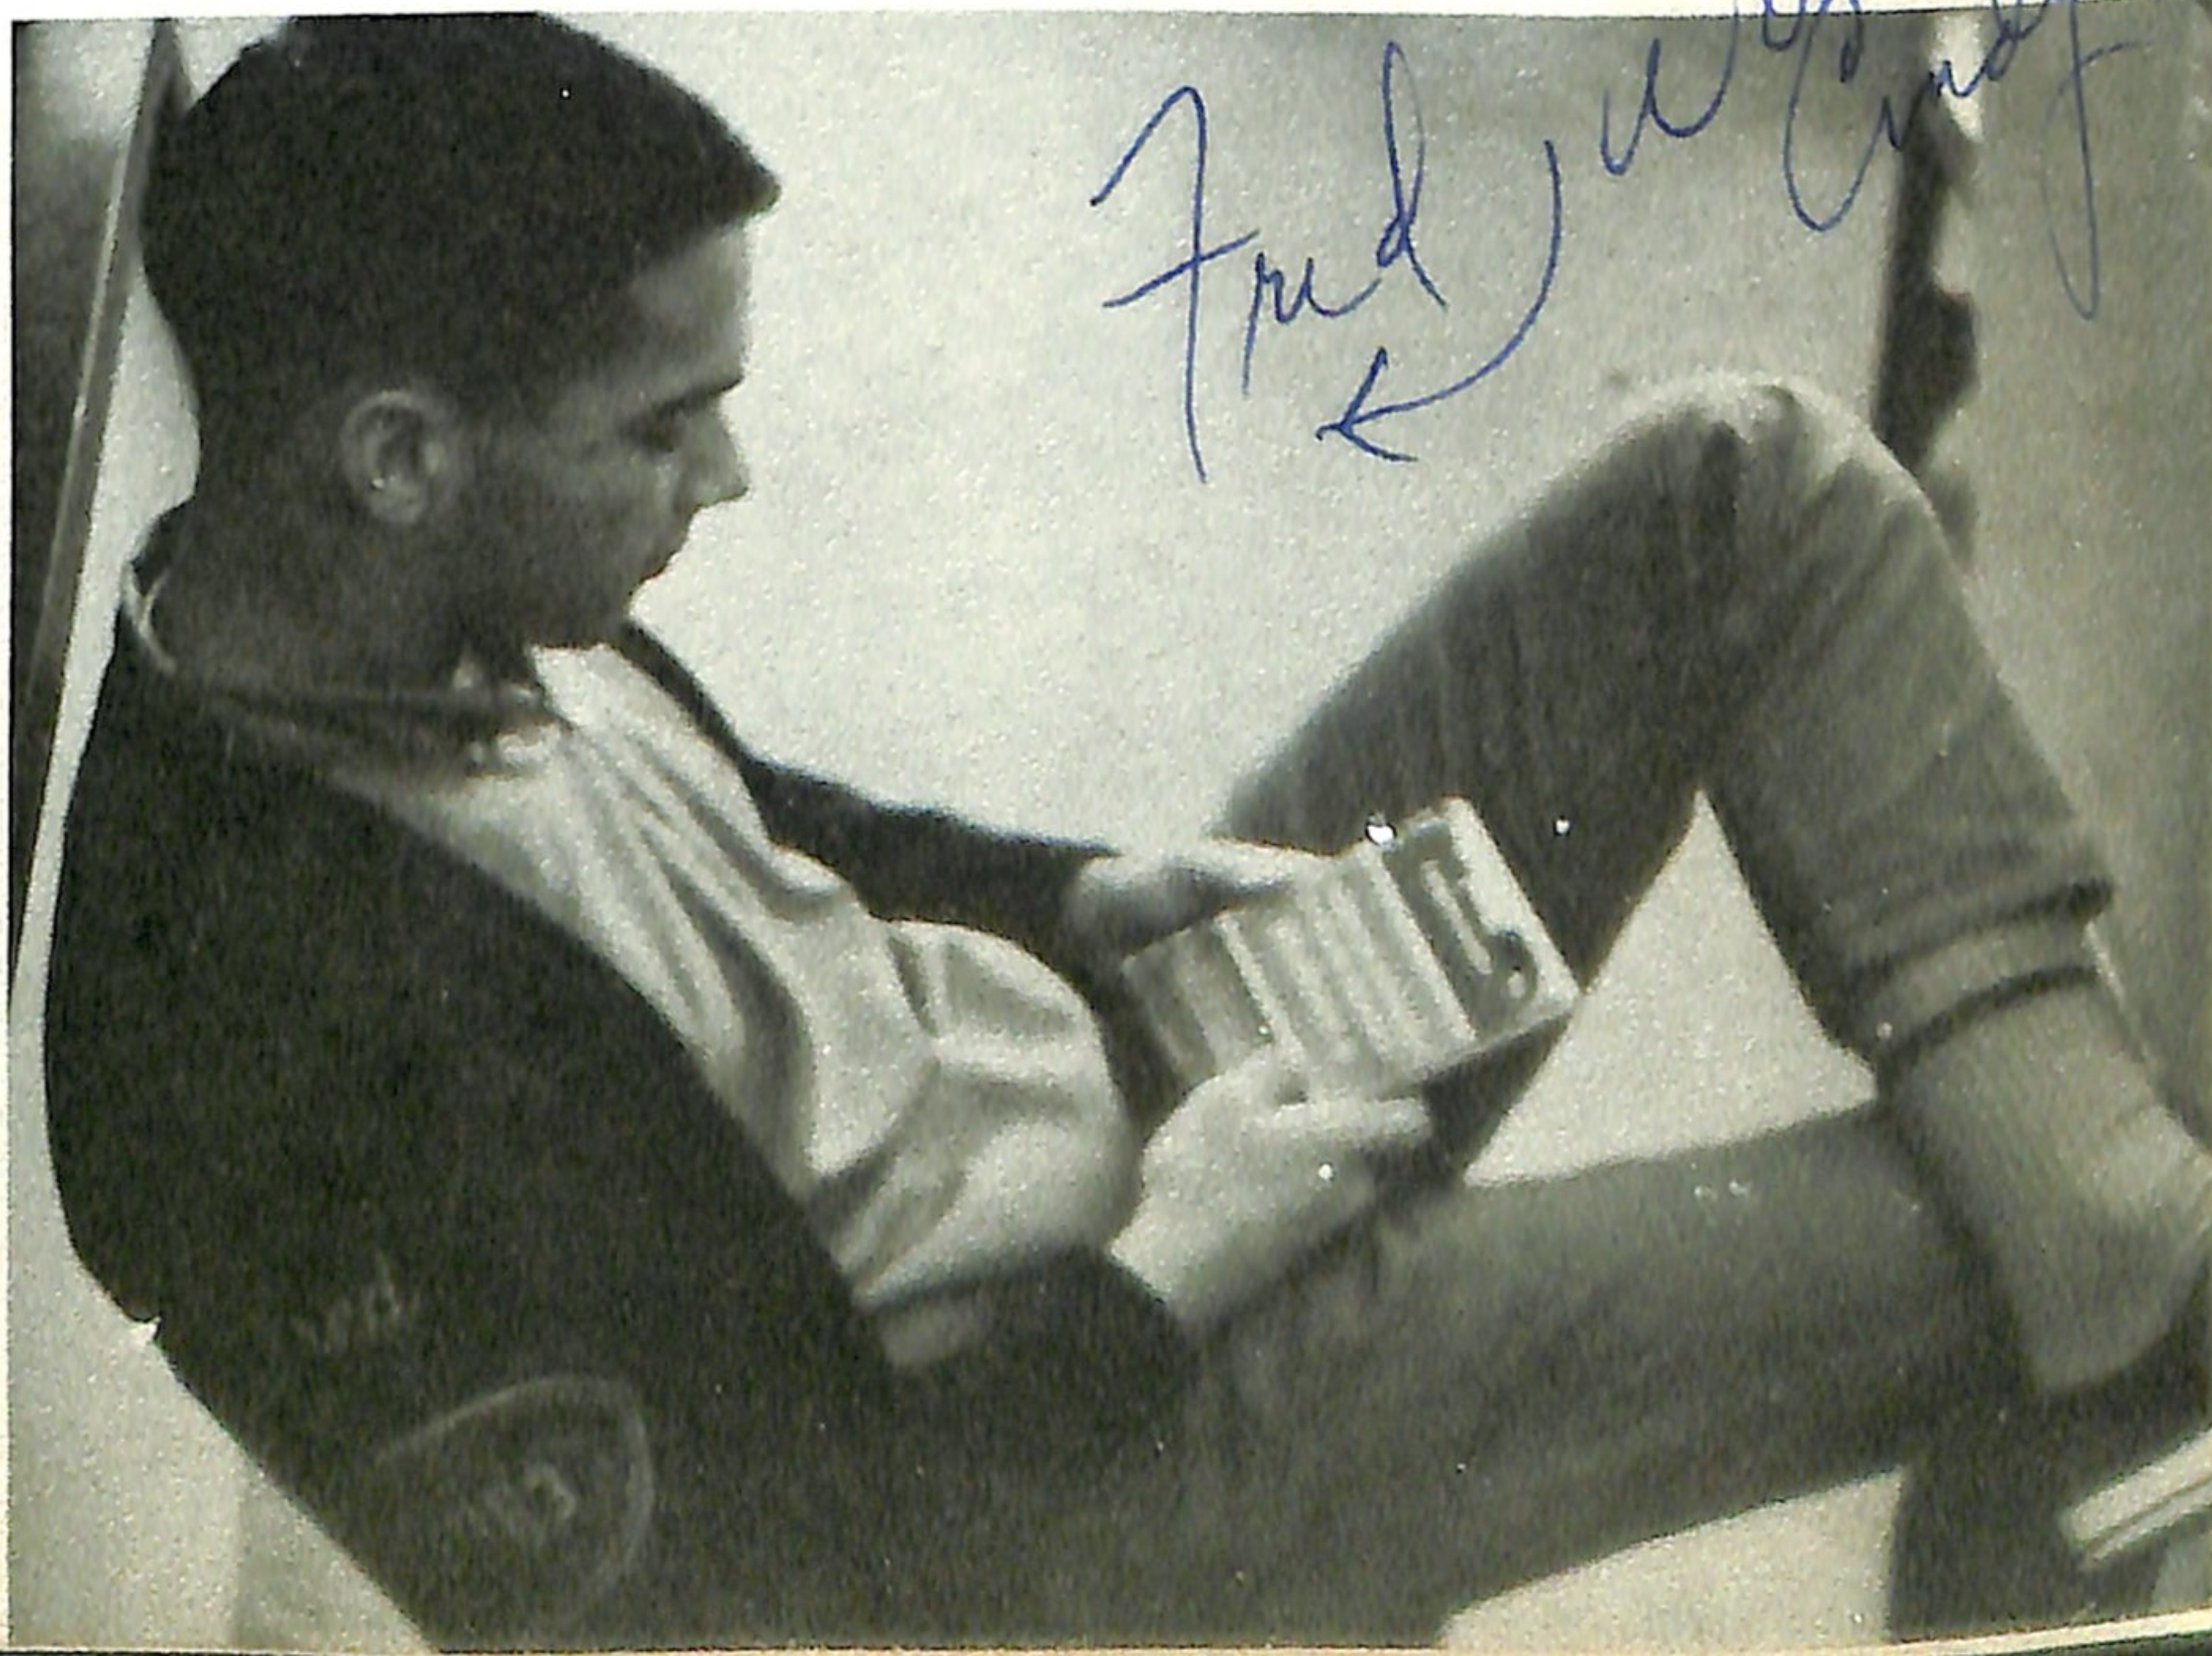

"Are you sure this is the way you print pictures."

"Come on eleven!"

"Yes, I'm right, the world is wrong."

"I hope this book is dirtier than the cover!"
